Bill Falls isn't the first agent to follow the path.

Faster!

Who are they?
What's going on?

And it breaks my heart a little that Meru falls into the same pattern. Already that same glimmer of feeling for him.

Makes me more than angry at myself.

The short story is, I'm CIA. They're the bad guys. My partner and I have been following you for a while.

You're on to something big. And frankly we're hoping you can lead us to some answers.

The CIA needs my help? I don't know anything.

Well, my bosses do. And they're usually right.

We gotta slow 'em down.

MIND MGMT FIELD GUIDE 2.1. Operation of motor vehicles in the field is discouraged until all High-Speed Mind Maneuver training classes have been completed.

It's amazing how relentless the Immortals are.

MIND MGMT. FIELD GUIDE. 2.2. Always aim for the trunk of an enemy, unless using Mind Mirror ammunition, in which case headshots are suggested.

The pace quickens. Faster than Meru can keep up with.

These guys are much worse.

The big questions will occur to her later.

How they know her.

Hurry, Meru. Get out of here. They won't kill you!

Why they won't kill her.

Go! Go!

And even as they lose the Immortals she knows they have to keep moving.

The markings on those pots are native to Zanzibar. Not much of a lead, but what else is there?

Don't sweat it. CIA is picking up the tab now.

Good. 'Cause I'm broke and I think my agent is done with me.

How'd you find me?

Me and my partner were assigned to follow you. Just to make sure you didn't get into trouble. To protect you from those—

She feels like she's grasping at straws now. Following the lead to Zanzibar. But it's enough to keep her going.

Who are they? That was crazy.

They call them "immortals." According to reports, they can't be killed.

Thanks, Bill.

I'm sorry about your partner. I...

But even as Bill spills the truth, Meru will still be skeptical.

We knew the risks.

What are the risks? What do you know that I don't?

Not much. CIA is looking for the same guy you are. The one responsible for the Amnesia Flight. They can't find him.

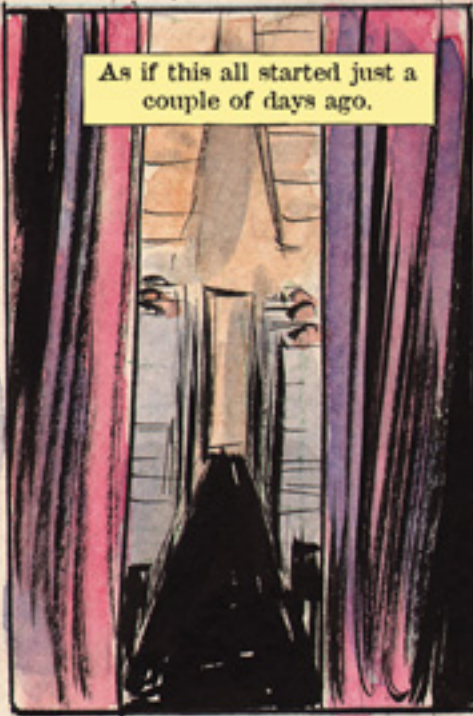

Apparently been a lot of agents on this. Mostly lost. They warned us going in that it was dangerous.

How long has the agency been following me?

No idea.

At least for a little while longer.

MIND MGMT FIELD GUIDE 2.4. Your mind and information are your most valuable assets. Give them up only as a last resort.

MIND MGMT FIELD GUIDE: 2.5. When traveling in pairs, never sit together. Use a staggered seating pattern to watch the front and rear flanks.

MIND MGMT FIELD GUIDE 2.6. When traveling abroad, make sure Remote Imaging periphery agents are in place at least 24 hours in advance of arrival.
