

Guangzhou, China.
Mind Management's
new headquarters.
Where the end begins.

The set is based on the architecture and layouts of Imhotep's Forgetting Temples. If you die here... you become a forgotten one.

It will be as if you never existed. No one will remember you.

We've got to get out of this place.

We can't go back now!

Then let's go forward!

Distraction boxes...we gotta focus, guys.

Too late...

Kil het perfect!

Follow me.
This isn't the battle
we need to be fighting!

We have to continue up...

Don't trust anything you see. The Eraser has made this place into something unimaginable.
