

WHERE BLACK CANARY GOES, TROUBLE FOLLOWS

Canary singer "D.D." uses lethal martial arts on gun-toting rival musician!

A BURNSIDE TOFU EXCLUSIVE BY TANTOO LA BICHE

Gotham City-based four-piece band Black Canary have been tearing up the road on tour--literally! Five of their last seven shows have reportedly ended in violence, with witnesses at last month's EXE Festival outside Central City describing mysterious frontwoman "D.D." as "more of a UFC fighter than a singer," after she single-handedly stopped a group of armed gunmen.

Full story on page 2

Audience member Sasha S. shows off souvenirs.

BURNSIDE TOFU
The place for people with the right kind of taste

Editor in Chief
TANTOO LA BICHE

Photo Editor
TANTOO LA BICHE

Staff Writer
TANTOO LA BICHE

Social Media Director
TANTOO LA BICHE

This isn't the first time trouble has followed Black Canary from the streets to a venue--their peers are starting to think the band is a magnet for danger, with D.D. clearly more comfortable in combat than on stage.

As venues and promoters begin making noise about striking the band from upcoming bills.

could Black Canary's song be over before it even begins?

THE MOST DANGEROUS BAND IN AMERICA

BRENDEN FLETCHER writer ANNIE WU artist LEE LOUGHRIDGE colors

STEVE WANDS letters ANNIE WU cover TULA LOTAY variant cover

DAVE WIELGOSZ assistant editor CHRIS CONROY editor MARK DOYLE group editor

