

MIRROR 5: EXODUS

IRZAH COLONY, YEAR 35

It is true.
The Esagila can fly to the stars.

But its captain...

Your choices seem clear.

Stay, and perish.
Or leave, and survive.

We don't even know if they'll take animals with them.

Ivan and the Professor won't leave us behind!

Right?
Aldebaran?

We should hurry.

If it helps you to decide.

we are not
the only animals
asking this question.

Please board the vehicles--

They're going to kill us!

You just want us out of the way!

They're bringing us away to die!

They're scared. The earthquake, the skies...

Where's Aldebaran? He can talk some sense into them.

It won't make any difference. They don't see him as one of their own.

Well, who else is there?

Me? Why would the hybrids listen to me?

They believe I abandoned them.

Your name and your deeds are remembered.

The older ones still whisper your name for protection.

How I will disappoint them.

Perhaps. Perhaps, after we have safely left this rock.

someone will raise questions, and discontent. And some will think poorly of you then.

But if you do nothing now, they will all die here.

Fine. Let's go save these animals so they can be disappointed with me.

Ivan!!

Finally!

Okay, Zun. You'll need to cast a portal to the training camp.

Me???
