

There are a lot of stories about that creepy-looking mansion on the hill, but Danny Crowe's living one far creepier than anything he's heard. His adventurer Grandpa promised him they'd explore the mansion one day, but a freak accident killed his gramps and squashed that plan until Madame Leota, a ghost in a crystal ball, reached out to Danny to tell him his Grandpa's ghost is in the mansion and needs his help!

Danny plucked up every bit of courage he had and set out for the mansion, which he learned is populated with retired ghosts who want to enjoy their (after)lives. But among them is a sinister spirit known only as the Captain who used his magic to trap all of the ghosts there with him! Only a living person can break the spell and find a way out, so Danny agreed to help. However, as the Captain smashed Leota's crystal ball, he revealed she was lying about Danny's Grandpa ever being in the mansion! At the point of his sword, the Captain forced Danny into a new mission: venture into the attic – the domain of Constance, the murderous ghostly bride – in a last-ditch effort to uncover the hidden treasure!

Welcome, foolish mortals, to...
