

PREVIOUSLY IN SEX CRIMINALS

It's the story
Of Jon and Suzie
And how they both stop time whenever they may cum Which is slang for the big o
Or "orgasm"
Which nothing rhymes wait maybe "your chasm?" Ugh.

It's the story
Of an evil banker
Who was busy with time-wanks of his own
All of them with painful stuff
And heavy issues
And they all feel alone

'Til the one day when this Johnny met his Suzie
And they screwed
And screwed and screwed then stole a bunch
'Til the banker
Decided to extract revenge on them at all costs while abusing his position, power, and fortune to personally destroy everything in their lives they held dear and precious, leading Suzanne to the emotional brink and Jon to the precipice of a dangerously untreated depression, resulting in an inevitable breakup, as she wanted to run from the whole thing and he wanted to fight and neither of them was being terribly direct with one another so of COURSE they split up and then Suzanne, finding a new job in a new town, tried to start over again but found that even outside of freezing time, she remained stuck in place like it was all some kind of metaphor or something and meanwhile Jon barked up all the wrong trees before coming to realize the holes inside him weren't gonna be filled by filling the holes, within or without him?

Maybe that's not the right usage of "without."
IDGAF. Anyway so then one night, she texted him then he texted her back then Suzie's mom's super vibrator bench started an electrical fire.

Dedicated to previous Previouslys

The smell of it gets me.
The smell and the sound.

It's not a whiff of campfire or a chestnut-roastingfireplace sort of fire.

This is fire where it shouldn't be.

It lets you know.

It's cotton and plastic, wiring and metal.

It's the scent of a life going up in ash.

And it sounds like the rumble of an oncoming train...

cough cough
cough

cough
ghaaak-
