But today was different,
most unusual for--

--the lake had never been empty before.

The lake creatures were scared,
that much was sure.

What could cause
them to ignore his--what rhymes
with sure...lures?

Well strange as it was, it simply couldn't stand.

Fish wasn't about to go hunt on land.

So off to discover why the creatures ran away, rowed the Fish this gloomy day.

Through the fog did the fish row.

Through the trees his boat did go.

And just when he thought to row back home--

--suddenly he realized he wasn't alone.
