

When I was thirteen years old, I had a vision.

I knew the big earthquake was coming.

I was ready with my cat and my hoodie and my backpack.

My whole family said I was making it up.

NINA, I HAVE TO BE UP EARLY TOMORROW.

COME ON, CRAZY BABY...

But I wasn't just a crazy baby.

I was right.

