

Broken Arrow Retirement Home.
Flagstaff, Arizona.
Doyle Beller, Captain.

Okay.
Let's see what we have here.

Skimmed as much as I could
since last week.
Couple Benzethine.
A few Darvocet.

Well,
every little
bit counts.
What else?
Anthony?

Don't got much.
Doctor says my lung
capacity's up...calling
it a 'positive response'
to 'treatment.' So I'm being weaned off anything resembling actual medicine.

Sorry it
isn't more,
Doyle.

Listen to me. You're doing what you can. I've learned to be thankful for small miracles.

It's not gonna be enough
is it?
