

POLICE REPORT

SANTA ROSA EMERGENCY DISPATCH

INCIDENT REPORT # 1872006

INCIDENT TYPE/OFFENSE

Homicide (Possible Multiple)

RESPONDING OFFICER

Deputy Daniela Ortiz for Sheriff Knight

DETAILS

At 0100, Sheriff Knight received a report of possible multiple homicides in a vacant home. The anonymous caller believed the victims were drug dealers and said their injuries looked like snake bites. (See #1872003 for another snake bite homicide: probable repeat perpetrator.) As Sheriff Knight is getting us funds to repair our printer, I'm filing the report in his stead. As the mayor won't give us funds to repair our printer, I'm filing the report by hand. (See #1872005) The sheriff was injured responding to a report of drug production, and could have been killed if not for the intervention of a man calling himself "Red Wolf," who I'm not supposed to call a nutcase. (See #1872002 about the Cheyenne man who acts like he's in a John Ford movie, and claims a murderer with a lightning gun brought him here.)

Further information to be provided by the Santa Rosa Coroner's office and the individuals listed below.
