MOSAIC

EPISODE FIVE: INVISIBLE MAN

Previously...

Basketball star Morris Sackett had it all: fame, money, a pop star girlfriend, and a championship ring. But at the height of it all, Morris was engulfed in the Terrigen Cloud, revealing previously unknown Inhuman abilities. Now, Morris can take control of anyone's body like taking the wheel of a car—though the connection goes both ways, allowing both Morris and his hosts to see information about each other. He also recently discovered that he can never jump into the same person twice.

As Morris learned about his new powers, he had also been trying to make contact with his father, Mason Sackett. Along the way, he uncovered (through occupying the bodies and minds of his father's associates) that his father was up to some unsavory deals with a security company called Brand Corp. Hoping to reach him and make sense of this new information, Morris jumped into the body of the Amazing Spider-Man—but even the excitement of having Spider-powers couldn't ease Morris' shock when he saw his father on television...announcing to the world that his son was dead!
