MY PHAROAH.

I MUST APOLOGIZE. YOUR SON CAESARIUS WAS -

DEFEATED, I SEE.

WE ARE DONE FOR TO -

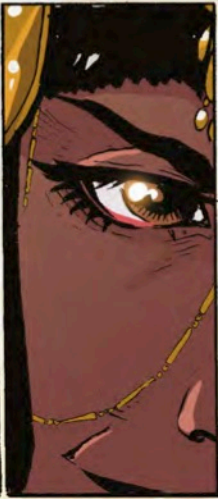

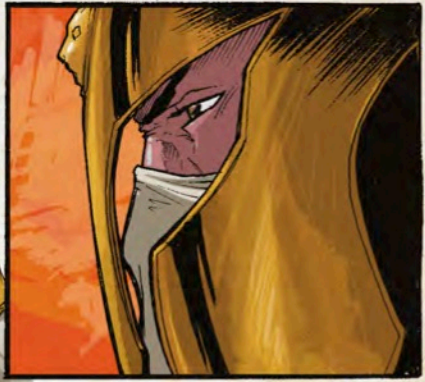

WE ARE NOT DONE. LET US CONTINUE.

THE FUTURE PHAROAH WISHES TO CONTINUE, SO... CONTINUE.

DO NOT GO EASY ON HIM.

WELL DONE, CAESARION.

WELL DONE? I WAS DEFEATED SOUNDLY.

AND YOU WILL LEARN A LESSON FROM IT.

EVERY SOLDIER MUST BE DEFEATED BEFORE THEY CAN UNDERSTAND VICTORY.

I AM PROUD OF YOU, MY SON.

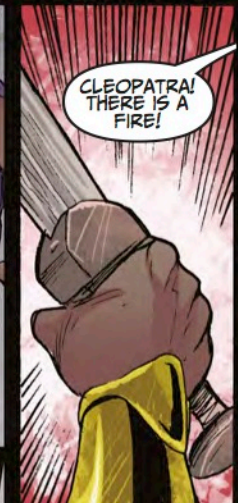

I AM NOT A CHILD. AT THIS AGE YOU WERE ALREADY -

DEFENDING EGYPT'S HONOR, AYE, AND NOW WE DO SO TOGETHER.

THEN LESS DISCUSSION...

... AND MORE -

CLEOPATRA! THERE IS A FIRE!

Rome, 44 B.C. Fourteen years earlier.

... BUT FEAR.

Three hours after the death of Julius Caesar.

MOST WERE SCARED OF THE DEATH THAT HAD JUST HAPPENED.

BUT OTHERS...

... ALLOWED THEMSELVES TO BECOME AFRAID OF WHAT ELSE COULD COME.

IT ALMOST RUINED THE CITY.

CAESAR IS DEAD!
