

No one is coming.

A couple more seconds...

Okay, they're switched.

I feel bad about taking someone else's license plates.

I do too.

But I feel better about it than stealing a car.

The police actually came...

At least we're well away from Bethesda. But we've gotta start moving again.

All right, we've got cash from the ATM and new plates.

So, where to?

That's a really good question.

We need to figure out the safest place for us.

We shouldn't go to anyone from the forum. We just don't know who's been compromised.

What if we left the country?

It's easier said than done, but I don't see any other options.

Should we go north or south?

Mexico is three times farther from us than Canada.

... North it is.
