

PREVIOUSLY:

Since outing himself as Daredevil in a court of law, blind lawyer Matt Murdock has faked the death of his best friend, Foggy Nelson, moved out west to start a new practice with his girlfriend, Kirsten McDuffie, and had more than a few run-ins with old foes looking to get even.

Recently, Matt cast off his cowl and completely embraced his role as The Man Without Fear—he's even writing a biography about his vigilante adventures. As his Daredevil duties have a tendency to take his attention away from authoring, Matt enlisted Foggy to help as his ghost writer.

With a deadline looming, Team Daredevil has hunkered down for a late night of storytelling...

CHAK

The pain threshold for sound is 130
decibels.

For a normal
person.

Those were 170-decibel
gunshots.

Feels like repeatedly slamming my head against the express train.

Shake
it off.

Follow the echoes. The shots were .38
caliber from the sound of them.

And they seem to have done their work.

Three
heartbeats.
All elevated.

Adrenaline is hitting them so hard, tracking them is like following a neon sign.

Follow the closest one...

Less than a yard away.

HUH HUH HUH--

Radar sense caught him tossing something away.

"Looks" to have been a .38.

GGH--

SLEEP.
