

BLOODSHOT NANITE

CLASSIFIED

SUBJECT: Bloodshot

ALIASES: [REDACTED] ^{Ray Garrison, Angelo Mortalli,}
[REDACTED] ^{The White Ghost,} [REDACTED]

D.O.B.: [REDACTED]

NOTES: Created by now-defunct military contractor Project Rising Spirit (PRS) for covert special ops, "Bloodshot" served for years as a near-unstoppable killing machine. He is infused with billions of "NANITES" advanced nano-robots giving him a rapid healing factor, enhanced strength, speed, endurance, and the ability to temporarily alter his physical appearance. Now free of his former masters, Bloodshot pursues his own directives, aiming to rectify the perceived wrongs he did while under the control of PRS

MISSION NOTES: After joining up with the clandestine spy organization known as The Burned, Bloodshot was manipulated into compromising a Black Bar ghost site, releasing countless superhuman bioweapons out into the world. Initial attempts to track each of these threats were quickly overwhelmed, leaving these monsters in the wind. Our only hope of recapturing them lies in the identification of their likely targets...
