Eye of the TIGER

KAMALA
KHAN.

LIVIN' THE DREAM.

SORT OF.

She's getting faster. And more confident. You've been a good friend to her, Lockjaw.

Hrrrh.

Still, I worry--

With the spread of the Terrigen Mists, there are many new Inhumans emerging, and not all of them are benign.

As long as Kamala insists on facing her future alone, she remains vulnerable to...

...other influences.

Hurrh.

You're right. It's not my decision.

Still...if it was, I would insist that Kamala live here, with us. Where it's safe.

Grove Street, Jersey City.

Later that day.

"She's learned how to protect herself physically--but there are greater dangers that she still doesn't see."
