

Let's see how I feel about it the next time.

Glad to see you came through unscathed.

I'm luckier than most. We lost too many today...

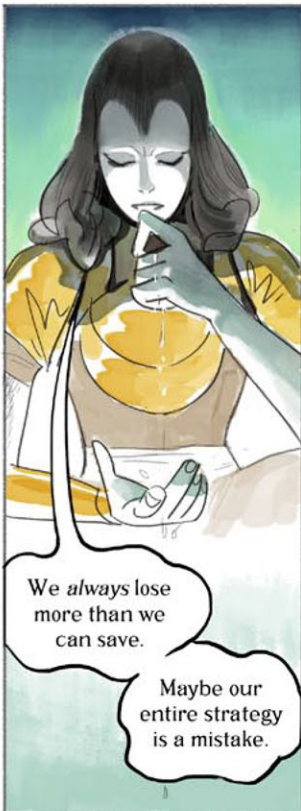

Fighters and prisoners both.

Just like the last time, and the time before that.

This time was especially bad. We made grave mistakes, and we'll learn not to repeat them.

We always lose more than we can save. Maybe our entire strategy is a mistake.

I'm using my strategy.

No. Sena.

You must not.

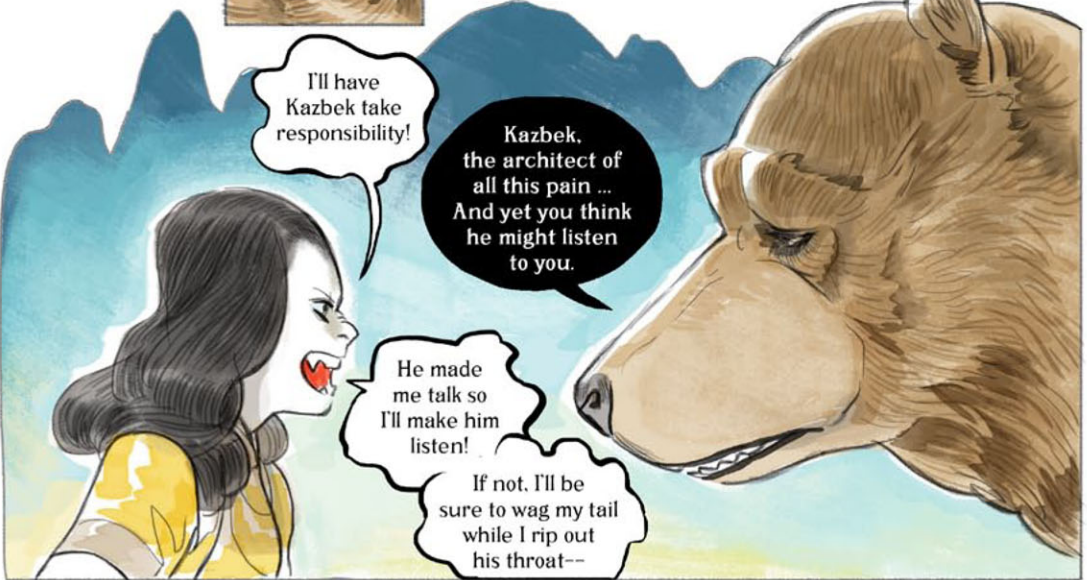

Sorry, Lesnik. It's been a while since I was an obedient dog.

You're better suited to play the hero.

So you want to be the martyr?

Our lady of vengeance.

I'll have Kazbek take responsibility!

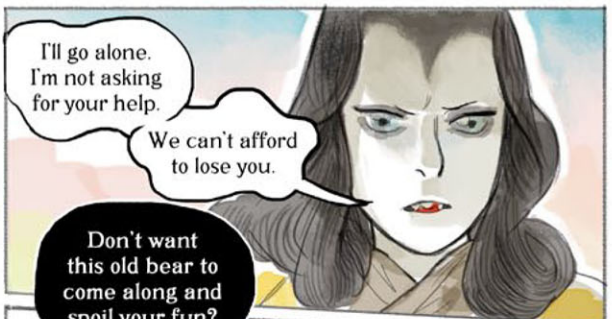

Kazbek, the architect of all this pain ... And yet you think he might listen to you.

He made me talk so I'll make him listen!

If not, I'll be sure to wag my tail while I rip out his throat--

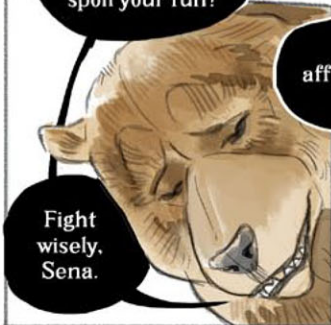

Sena.

I'll go alone. I'm not asking for your help.

We can't afford to lose you.

Don't want this old bear to come along and spoil your fun?

Fight wisely, Sena.

I can't afford to lose you.
