

SAVED NEW YORK CITY

POPULATION CAPPED AT 12.5 MILLION

*Command,
this is Guard Squadron.
We have begun
our Harbor approach.*

Guard Squadron, you are cleared for interior operations.

We've got you crossing the Protection Zone now.

Copy that, Command. One for H Building Inquiry, passage confirmed.

"By the time my team arrived, the New Mercy resettlement had sustained what I would characterize as a direct assault from above using the conjured elements as a weapon..."

The snowfall was even and consistent where we measured it along the ground and fell, by my assessment, at a rate of nearly three inches per hour.

But this was not a natural occurrence.

And while shopkeepers closed their doors, and children who'd never seen it snow before ran outside to play...

... A merchant of death stalked them from the shadows.

We count the dead at nine, including three synthetic Vigilant units loyal to the Cooperative...

Along with four children left lying in the snow.

Inquisitors, I have but one suspect to accuse...
