A man with brown hair, wearing a light-colored t-shirt and dark pants, is running through a room. He has a determined expression. The room is in a state of disarray, with several blue cans scattered on the floor, some of which are crushed. A wooden chair is overturned on the right side of the frame. The floor is dark and appears to be made of wood or a similar material. The walls are a mix of light and dark colors, suggesting a complex or industrial setting. A speech bubble is positioned above the man's head, containing the text "WHATEVER I DO I ALWAYS REMEMBER".

WHATEVER I DO I ALWAYS REMEMBER
