

After Thanos took his family and his life, the man now known as Drax was remade into a being of great strength with a thirst for revenge. His pursuit of justice has taken him throughout the universe and shown his incredible courage and heroism, which led Peter Quill to invite him into the Guardians of the Galaxy. Though he found a new home with the Guardians, true peace remains elusive for the warrior called...

DRAX

On his way to kill the mad titan Thanos, Drax's loaner spaceship crashed on a rinky-dink moon. Ora, the resident bartender/mechanic, insisted Drax track down missing children and machinery in exchange for drinks/spaceship repair. Drax traced all the stolen goods and people to one source: Fin Fang Foom, who had set up an underground dragon-worship-battle-arena death cult to baptize the last eggs of his species in blood. So now Drax, plus former Galactus herald (and cool guy) Terrax and literal battle machine Torgo, get to fight a dragon. Which might not be Thanos, but is still pretty frickin' cool.
