

NORMAL TEENAGER SEEKING RESCUER

My name is Becca Rodriguez and I'm STILL stuck in Weirdworld! That would be bad enough, but I guess there's a war happening between a "Swamp Queen" and some chick named Morgan Le Fay, and people keep telling me I'm going to destroy Weirdworld somehow? Ugh. I wish.

Catbeast (who used to be a wizard named Ogeode until my boss, Goleta the Wizardslayer, you know...slayed him) says he can get me home using the Wuxian Seed if we help him find another wizard body--which is good, because I still need to get my mom's ashes to Mexico. I'd be there already if my plane hadn't crashed into Weirdworld.

I mean, listen, it's not all bad I guess. We just found this super-cute town filled with candy! So if you're reading this, maybe give me a few minutes to score some delicious noms before sending help to...
