A full-page illustration of Aquaman standing amidst a scene of total destruction. The city is in flames, with twisted metal and rubble everywhere. Aquaman is in the center, wearing his iconic green and gold suit. He has a determined expression, with his right hand raised to his forehead as if shielding his eyes from a bright light or heat source. The background is a chaotic mix of orange, red, and yellow, suggesting a fire or explosion. In the top left, a speech bubble contains the text 'LAST WARNING! OPEN THIS DOOR!'. In the top right, another speech bubble says 'I'M NOT REALLY HERE.'.

LAST WARNING!
