This story takes place after POWER PACK: GROW UP #1!

The Power Pack are siblings with super-powers, but they haven't told their parents! But when their friend Franklin Richards has a prophetic dream of monsters looking to destroy the Power Pack and take over Earth, the siblings consider letting their parents in on their secret so their attempt to figure out what's going on doesn't disrupt their family vacation. Meanwhile, on Snarkworld, their friend Kofi was accepted into a prestigious new school--only for him and his new classmate Djinna to be kidnapped on their very first day by the exiled Snark princess, Mayhem! The Power Pack helped their friends escape to a remote planet, only to be cornered by a Brood ship just as Franklin seemed to be eaten by a space monster!

Fault

The Brood monsters-- they killed Franklin!

He was too little to bring here. And he had blocks on his powers except for his dream self. This is my fault.

No, Alex, it's mine.

And especially mine.

Wait! Djinna, there's your yacht. It's not destroyed! The Brood ship has it. If Frank's inside...

"...then we can probably save him!"

There is your stolen yacht, Mayhem, safe and intact.

That's a relief, Queen B'rute! We Sharks didn't know you Brood could enfold a craft in such a strong protective field.

And here it rests...like a shiny little egg with the human larvae Power Pack cocooned inside...!

Oh no! That's the bug monster...and Mayhem. They're the beings I dreamed about!

This isn't one of the larvae my soldiers fought. It's too small and seems to be in a suspended state.

Power Pack must have abandoned ship when the denizens of this world attacked, and left this worthless grub behind.

Wrong, monster! My body's asleep but my dream self's wide awake! An'...an'...

...grub means bug baby! I'm not worthless or a baby! Or a bug either!

An' Power Pack didn't abandon me. It's my fault.

I shoulda waked myself up an' jumped like Djinna did! But I was scared. Maybe Katie's right. Maybe I am a baby.

Scan for Power Pack on the planet below. They are mine. As is the Kymellian.

I want the Kymellian! He's one of the thieves who stole my yacht!

Liar! That's Djinna's yacht. The Snark emperor gave it to her. I should wake myself up. I should tell them!

The Kymellian will be transformed into one of the Brood and become the spearhead for my clan's conquest of his world.

Just as Power Pack's transformation will begin our subjugation of Earth.

Take this one, if you want it. And the Snark brat too, when we capture her. But the rest are mine.

My power monitor is flashing. It seems this human, too, possesses power. But I mustn't act too eager.

I accept. Not that I have a choice. Of course, you'll have to find Power Pack first.

I have the Snark girl's yacht.

My yacht!

How else will they get home? Power Pack will come to me, and when they do, I'll have them!

She's wrapped me in neurofiber. Jack told me it would keep my body and brain asleep...

...an' if I go back in my body, I'll get stuck there. Better tell Friday. We need to save Power Pack...

"...an' save the Earth."

I'm sorry, Friday. I couldn't reach Kitty and Wolverine. Where's Franklin?

I'm here! Hi, Storm!

The giant Sleazoid bug has Djinna's yacht, an' it wants to transform Power Pack an' Kofi into Brood monsters.

It gave the Shark--her name's Mayhem--my body, but it's wrapped in neurofiber so I can't wake up.

We need to go to there an' I need to warn Power Pack...

...but they're out on the lightning world somewhere an' I don't know where they are an'--

I know that planet, Storm. I was with Kofi when we discovered it--a rolling mass of electric energy.

Then we don't need Wolverine and Kitty. If this is a storm-tossed world, I should be able to aid them.

I have some experience with the Brood. And it will be my pleasure to battle those monsters!
