STORY SO FAR:

When Rodimus returns to Earth with the Matrix of Leadership, he hands it back to Optimus Prime while warning him that Galvatron has raised an army on Cybertron. Optimus assembles the Autobots and they take off to their home planet on Omega Supreme's rocket, with Megatron imprisoned within.

When the Autobots finally arrive, Galvatron sends them a message from the surface. Optimus leads a landing party to investigate and soon finds Galvatron amid his army of thousands. He invites Optimus and the Autobots to join him in stopping a threat that could destroy Cybertron. When they refuse, all hell breaks loose and Galvatron beats a quick retreat. As the Autobots convene and attempt to figure what plan Galvatron has for the planet, they find themselves in the sights of the Kimia space station, captured by the enemy forces and converted into its space cannon alt-mode...
