I've never liked
telling war stories.

Some men love to tell them.
Hell, some men need to. They need to convince themselves that the war is over.

But I'm not one of them.

My first months in Vietnam
were not pleasant.

That's all you need to know.

Huế City, Vietnam 1968

After what happened, I was reassigned to the MACV in Huế City, as a translator, and liaison to the city government.

I liked it there. I had friends. I had a routine.

In spite of everything, it felt... normal.

So normal it almost hurt.
