PREVIOUSLY IN DREAD GODS: In a post-apocalyptic landscape, the population plugs into a daily entertainment provided by the Prometheus conglomerate, featuring god-like heroes led by Zeus and Hera. But the truth is that Zeus and his pantheon are merely puppets in a program to keep the populace docile and increase the personal power of Prometheus himself. In the fantasy world, Zeus moves to confront his nemesis Hades, while in the real world, a man named Carver heads to Prometheus City, believing he must find and rescue the gods.
