TRANSFORMERS

LOST LIGHT

Way back in the beginning, the Guiding Hand help create Cybertron... before one of them, Adaptus, turns on the others. He wipes their memories; makes a getaway using Luna I, the larger of Cybertron's two moons, as a ship; and spends the next few million years preparing to fight a malevolent, planet-sized robot (no, not that one) that he sees during a brief, unplanned visit to the future.

Team Rodimus encounters Adaptus moments before the Functionist Council make the journey from their universe into ours. The Council are piloting their home planet-another Cybertron-which they've given an alt mode and a name, Primus, after their god.

Rodimus learns that during the course of their quest the Crusadercons have in fact met all the other members of the Guiding Hand-including the REAL Primus, a.k.a. Rung. As the Functionist 'Primus' bears down on the Lost Light, a plan is hatched: Rung will create a dozen Matrixes that, if opened at key points on Cybertron's surface, will destroy the Council without harming the planet itself or the innocents inside.

There's just one problem...
