

OVER THE GARDEN WALL.

• HOLLOW TOWN •

Memory is a strange thing, you see. So fleeting for us mortals: you might not now remember what you ate for yesternight's supper or the name of your childhood babysitter. But the places we've been, the paths we've walked, the things we've seen—they never truly forget us!

You may not like it, little one, but your footprints still lie where you saw them last, and the tree's bark still smarts where you chopped at it. Time is of no matter to the woods, you know, and they don't forgive easily.

So, if you ever feel that you left a piece of yourself behind somewhere—wonder why no longer. Some orphaned half of your soul is still wandering here, in the impenetrable past. Be glad you left it behind—you outgrew it, after all!

GASP!

Greg!

Greg!

Wirt,
Wirt! Can you believe these waves?

Thank goodness you're okay. Man, oh man...

STARE

Jeez, what a mess...rest in pieces, Wirt's Raft!

MY
raft?

ROROR!

Shoot, Greg! Watch it!

Whoa nelly!

Come on, Greg! You HAVE to be more careful--you've only got the one shoe!

Come on, this'll be easier.

Oh, for crying out loud--no, you almost impaled yourself on that wood, Greg!

Oh no! That was almost lights-out for Ant-town!

She probably thinks your frog is neither a knight nor a babysitter, Greg. She also thinks you should try listening to your brother for a change.

Thomas Edison says you should care more about the ants, Wirt! They're people, too!

ROROR!

I care more about not having a repeat of your summer camp splinter incident.

The Frog-king doesn't judge! He knows that it's the armor inside that counts!

Oh no! I didn't know about the Frog-Queen! What's she like?

Oh, Wirt, you don't have to worry about me! Sir Hopsalot--the bravest knight and frog in the land--is my sworn protector! Hehe!

Are you ever gonna just pick a name for that frog, kid?

Psh, maybe the Frog-king doesn't judge, but the Frog-Queen definitely does.

Who? What? What are we talking about now?

So now he's a knight? Where's his, like, armor and stuff?

ROROR!
