

Angel, one of the only vampires in the world with a soul, has been walking the streets of Los Angeles for years, neither human nor vampire. For years he's tried to redeem himself for the horrors he committed as Angelus, which led him to Sunnydale, CA, to face a demon that attacked young women through social media. Before he could track down his new foe, Angel's demon guide, Lilith, let him know that evil forces were arising to snuff out his friends before he even made them.

Traveling to a dark dimension to fight this monster, Angel had a vision of a young woman, the Slayer, who he knows he must protect. Once he returns, however, his newly awakened ally Winifred Burkle informs him of another friend right in Los Angeles, who needs his attention first. Angel and "Fred" must now find their potential ally, known only as "Gunn," before something else finds him...
