El·e·phant·men [el-uh-fuhnt-men] noun:

1. Transgenics; human/animal hybrids, genetically engineered by the MAPPO Corporation for military deployment in the Afro-Sino War (2239-2243). Rehabilitated by the United Nations, these creatures were gradually inculcated into human society.

2. Derogatory term for such.

ELEPHANT

ATTMEN

A stylized illustration of a gothic building at night. The building features a large clock tower on the left and a central entrance with a set of stairs. A figure in a green cloak stands on the steps. The scene is lit with warm, golden light from the windows and a purple beam of light from the right. The word 'ATTMEN' is written in a large, stylized, red and white font across the middle of the image.
