

The utopia run by the Elder Councils and SOL is an illusion.

A true utopia would have no problems to solve, therefore no need for updates, hidden weapons caches, or any of the nonsense I've dealt with since leaving my island.

The island was home for me. I miss the peace and calm of life with just the machines.

Humans are unpredictable and often not inclined to do what you want them to.

There's a joy to communing with other humans, but it comes with a price.

Machines are reliable, predictable, and will perform a given function without complaint or ulterior motive.

Humans? Not so much.

WHAT IS THIS PLACE?

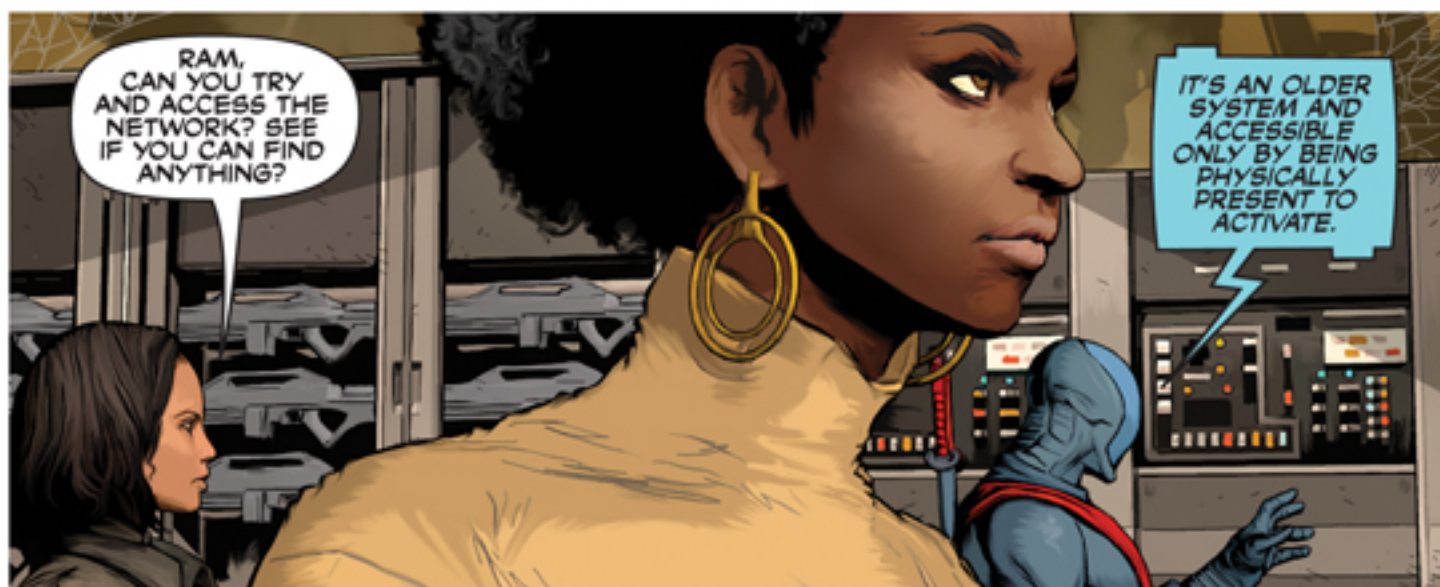

THESE ARE WEAPONS. HIDDEN HERE BY PEOPLE FROM THE TIME BEFORE.

MY DAD SPOKE OF A PLACE LIKE THIS NEAR THE WHITE IN HIS AUDIO JOURNAL TO ME.*

DID THIS FACILITY SHOOT DOWN OUR SHIP?

NEGATIVE. THE MISSILES THAT HIT US LAUNCHED FROM SEA.

*EDITORS' NOTE: SEE OPENING PAGES OF SYMMETRY #2!

THE LAST OF THE SOUTH AFRICAN RESISTANCE WAS ELIMINATED TODAY. THE SURVIVORS HAVE AGREED TO BE RELOCATED TO THE SEGREGATED WHITE AND AFRICAN ZONES WITHOUT FURTHER BLOODSHED.
