still, with a bit of guidance...

The cat learned to fit in.

(mostly.)

Outside, in the warm fall afternoon, the kittens leaped out to play.

And Papa cat leaped out for prey.

But mice weren't what caught our friend's eye.

Immediately drawn to the field of music, our friend the cat tried to play.

And play he did.

He was awful.

Not to be unsupportive, the cat's family encouraged him to play out in town. He could join a band, become a team player.

Far, far away from their delicate ears.

Cat played his fiddle happily through the woods.

He played for every creature who crossed his path.

Gathering adoring fans from throughout the forest.

He was certain he was destined for musical greatness! All he had to do was join a band.
