"The Department of Luck & Probability, with a heavy heart, confirms the deaths of The Unfortunates..."

"...in the pursuit of the science of Luck."

"The discoveries by Doctor Dianne Diaphanous, who pioneered The Unfortunates Program, have come under scrutiny and we will be moving away from her theories."

"The Unfortunates' deaths established how vital Luck was to our very mission, and how little we understood."

"We knew they would not succeed, but to what extent was a mystery."

"And as predicted, from the ashes of failure rises the fiery bird named opportunity!"

"The data from Artemis Barlow's contact with Cassiopeia has allowed us to locate, for the first time, the other Constellations using Satellite Luck Imaging.

"Orion the Gambler radiates Good Luck in his desert casino, Lucky Stars.

"The Twin Wolves Gemini emit Good Luck to the Appalachians and those who bring offerings of food.

"An indigenous myth proven real.

"Polaris, The Lucky Cat Boy, responsible for the collapse of Kovygrade, Russia when he appeared in 1999.

"Horologium, the man in the hourglass, put Chicago on a ticking clock...we do not know what happens when the sand expires. Likely something horrific.

"The Librarian Cygnus, responsible for the disappearance of nearly 7,800 people near Durango, Mexico. We have GPS tracking her and her floating library."

The Constellations--

The Gods of Luck are the foremost enemy to the sovereign existence of humankind!

Precisely!

The spherical mass of conjoined Luck particles radiates both Good and Bad Luck.

The result is a paradoxical area, known as a Kismet Zone.

And the Kismet Core, their weapon of mass destruction, is the only means we know of that could obliterate them.

Completely and totally!

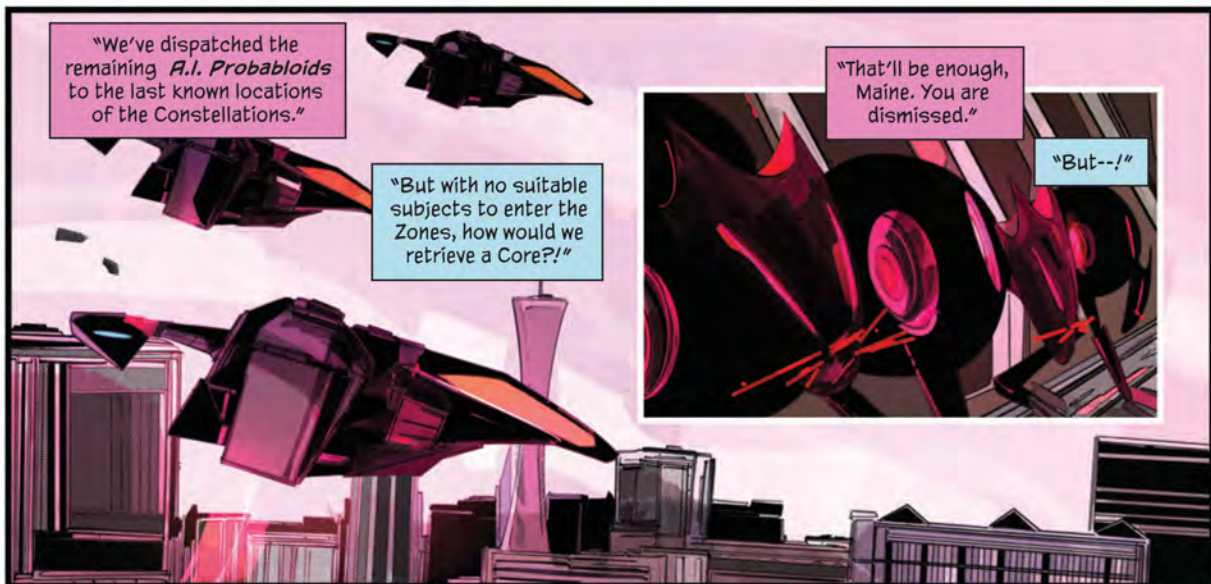

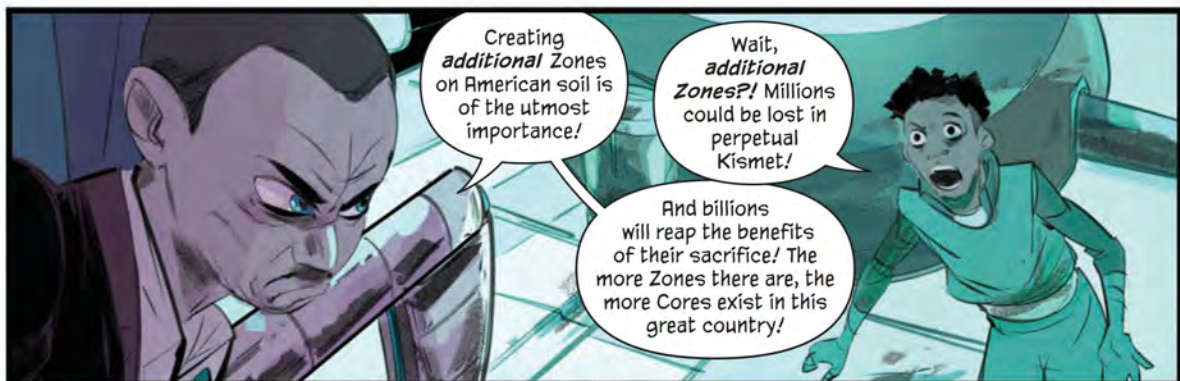

7 MILE RADIUS

To The United States of America, the Core is the most valuable thing in existence!

And obtaining a Core, harnessing the Luck it produces would mean we could be the Wishgivers of the World.

They've stolen our own lives from us.

We must take them back!
Like our forefathers entrusted with the Manifest Destiny, we must make conquest
for our Existential Destiny!

Wait, but...

And if there is one cause to die for, this is it!
The reclamation of our inherited fates!

Well
I don't...

This is why those poor, unfortunate kids died!

And we'd all be lucky to die for such a cause.

Yes! We will cast aside the shackles of probability and restore the chaos
of the universe!
