

Brasov, Romania: The largest city in the Transylvanian sector of Romania...

And 115 km from the Nosferatu stronghold of Kauzstadt.

Romania, like the other nations that comprised the Warsaw Pact, dwelt behind the Iron Curtain for over 40 years...

But since the Revolution of 1989 and the fall of Ceausescu, the country and its people have worked hard to catch up with the rest of Europe...

Especially in regards to the Free Market.

To go from Das Kapital to capitalism in less than a generation is an amazing feat...

These are truly wondrous times, where those with not just a viable business plan--

But also the vision and drive to make their dreams a reality--

Are free to become veritable lords of industry--even more powerful than the kings and princes of old.

I WILL HANDLE IT...

YAAHHHHH*

PUT HIM WITH THE OTHERS.

SPLORK!

THERE YOU GO. HE WILL BE NO MORE TROUBLE...
