

FOUR KILOMETERS
EAST OF THE
ESTONIAN BORDER
IN RUSSIA

Comrade,
put your hands in the air and take off your shirt
immediately.

Wait... what?

Resistance is futile. You will be assimilated.

Remove
your clothing and do some twerking.

David? You
jackass...

I hacked
one of the Russian drones.
Austin wanted
me to talk
to you.

You're such an idiot. You scared some old Cossak woman
half to death;
she's probably still running.

White House wants you to observe and follow the Russian Forces but not to intervene or get apprehended.

No [redacted] Do they want anything I wasn't already doing?

CIA Director Singh wants you to bring Sejic in alive and not just kill him.

That's going to be up to Sejic. Do we have a location for him?

Intel has him traveling with the Russian Forces you're already failing. I've got a supply drone inbound to drop you some stuff.

ETA Forty-five minutes; it includes a laptop with some surveillance software and a parabolic microphone dish to try and pick him up.
