MARVEL COMICS PROUDLY PRESENTS

MOSAIC

EPISODE EIGHT: TAKE THE "A" TRAIN

Previously...

Basketball player Morris Sackett had it all: fame, money, pop star girlfriend, championship ring. But at the height of it all, Morris was engulfed in the Terrigen Cloud, revealing previously unknown Inhuman abilities. Now, Morris can take control of anyone's body like taking the wheel of a car—though the connection goes both ways, allowing both Morris and his hosts to see information about each other. He also recently discovered that he can never jump into the same person twice.

During this process, Morris came to learn that the people closest to him—including his father and girlfriend—couldn't be trusted. Talent and success have always meant that Morris takes care of number one above all else, but now people expect him to act like a hero. So when Mosaic saw a weird energy signature in the sky, he decided to give heroism a shot...and found himself stuck in the body of a moloid and imprisoned by some guy called Diablo!
