Doreen Green isn't just a second-year computer science student: she secretly also has all the powers of both squirrel and girl! She uses her amazing abilities to fight crime and *be as awesome as possible. You know her as...The Unbeatable Squirrel Girl! Find out what she's been up to, with...

Squirrel Girl in a nutshell

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony hey pretty crazy how @sewwiththeflo and I got trapped in hypertime and lived out our whole lives in one weekend at superspeed!

Tony Stark @starkmantony
@unbeatablesg Yes, you made a mockery of the free-use policy on my public restrooms.

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony tony

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony it is my understanding that after doing that we glued a "lol sorry about that" post-it note onto your person at super-speed

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony so what is this

Tony Stark @starkmantony
@unbeatablesg Hey, honestly, just happy to help. Listen: is it true that you have no memories of what happened?

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony NONE

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony the machine we built to send us back to regular time was like restoring from backup, so -- body gets restored, but brain gets restored too!

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony lots of adventures during that missing weekend though, that's for sure!

Tony Stark @starkmantony
@unbeatablesg Including the adventure of "liberating" hardware from my high-security warehouses to build said machine, you mean.

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony TONY!

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony it is my understanding that we glued "lol sorry about that as well" post-it notes onto your person at super-speed regarding this matter as well

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony so again I find myself asking, what is this

Tony Stark @starkmantony
@unbeatablesg Again, just teasing! Seriously. Good to have you back, Squirrel Girl.

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
@starkmantony Good to be back! Okay I'll let you go, I'm late for a SECRET THING

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
ANNOUNCEMENT: my new thing is calling everything a "SECRET THING," I am v. mysterious

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
Hey, on an unrelated note, you know that feeling when someone gets new glasses, but you don't know they got new glasses, so you're looking at them and they're still clearly the same person but they look different and you're like "I know SOMETHING has changed here, but WHAT??"

Squirrel Girl @unbeatablesg
I dunno I just thought I'd mention that for some reason, okay bye

So this dude Borges was born in 1899, and when he grew up he became--among other things--a librarian. And one day he wrote a story called "The Library of Babel."
It describes a big ol' library the size of the universe that contains within it trillions--zillions--of 410-page books.
But they're not regular books.

These books are random.

The books in this library contain every possible ordering of the letters of the alphabet that'll fit within their pages! This is a library constructed through brute force.
And yes, this means most of the books are gibberish. Random letters don't give you words, most of the time.
But some of the time, they do.

So that means that lost within this almost endless sea of random noise...are treasures.
Copies of every book ever written. Copies of every book that ever will be written!

We're talking scientific discoveries not yet made...
HOW TO MAKE HOVERCARS OUT OF STICKS AND SOME OLD BATTERIES

COMPLETE UNABRIDGED STORY OF EVERY AWESOME ADVENTURE THAT SPIDERMAN EVER WENT ON JUST THE GOOD STUFF
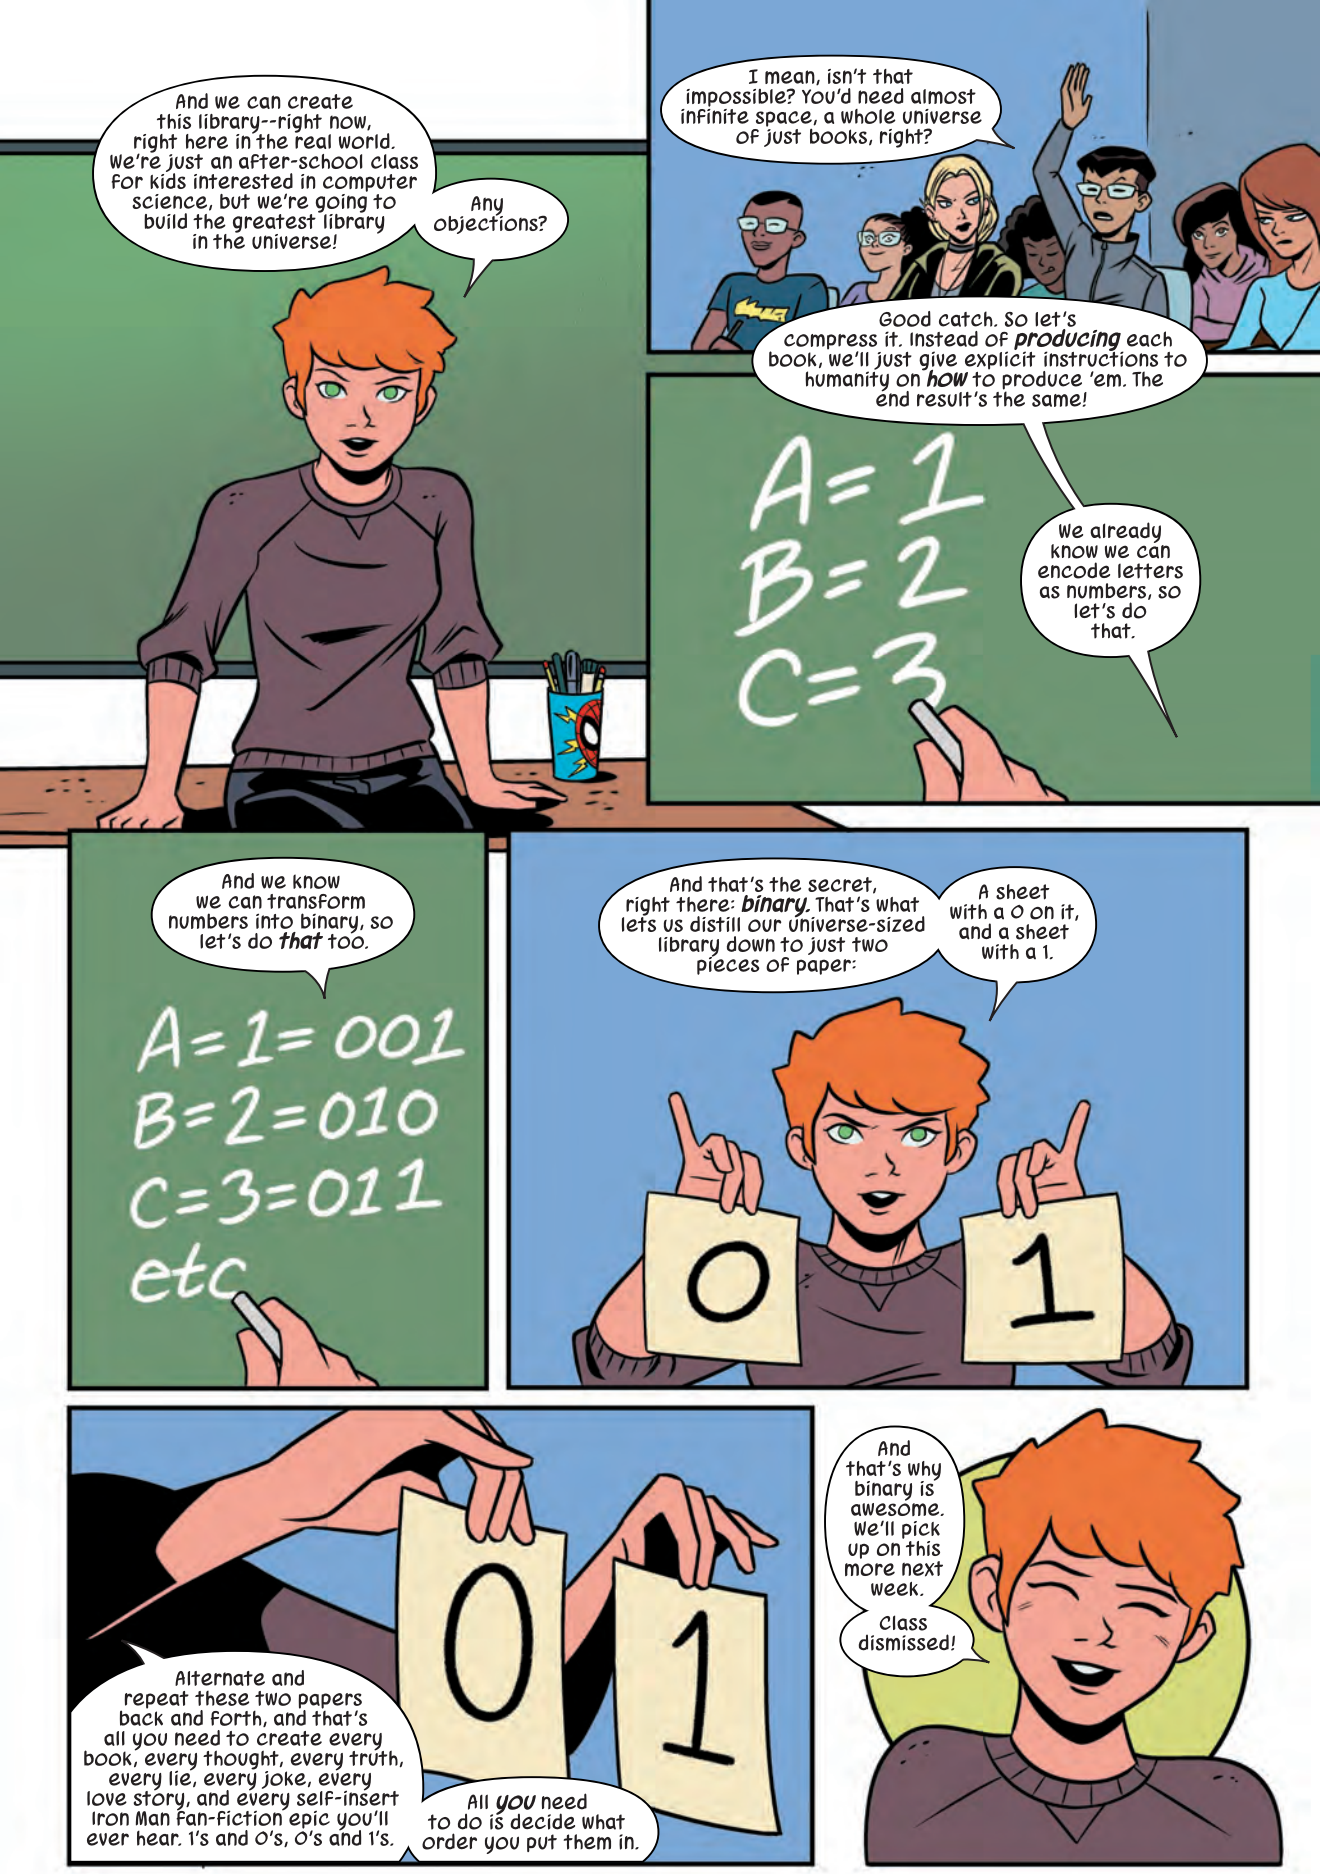
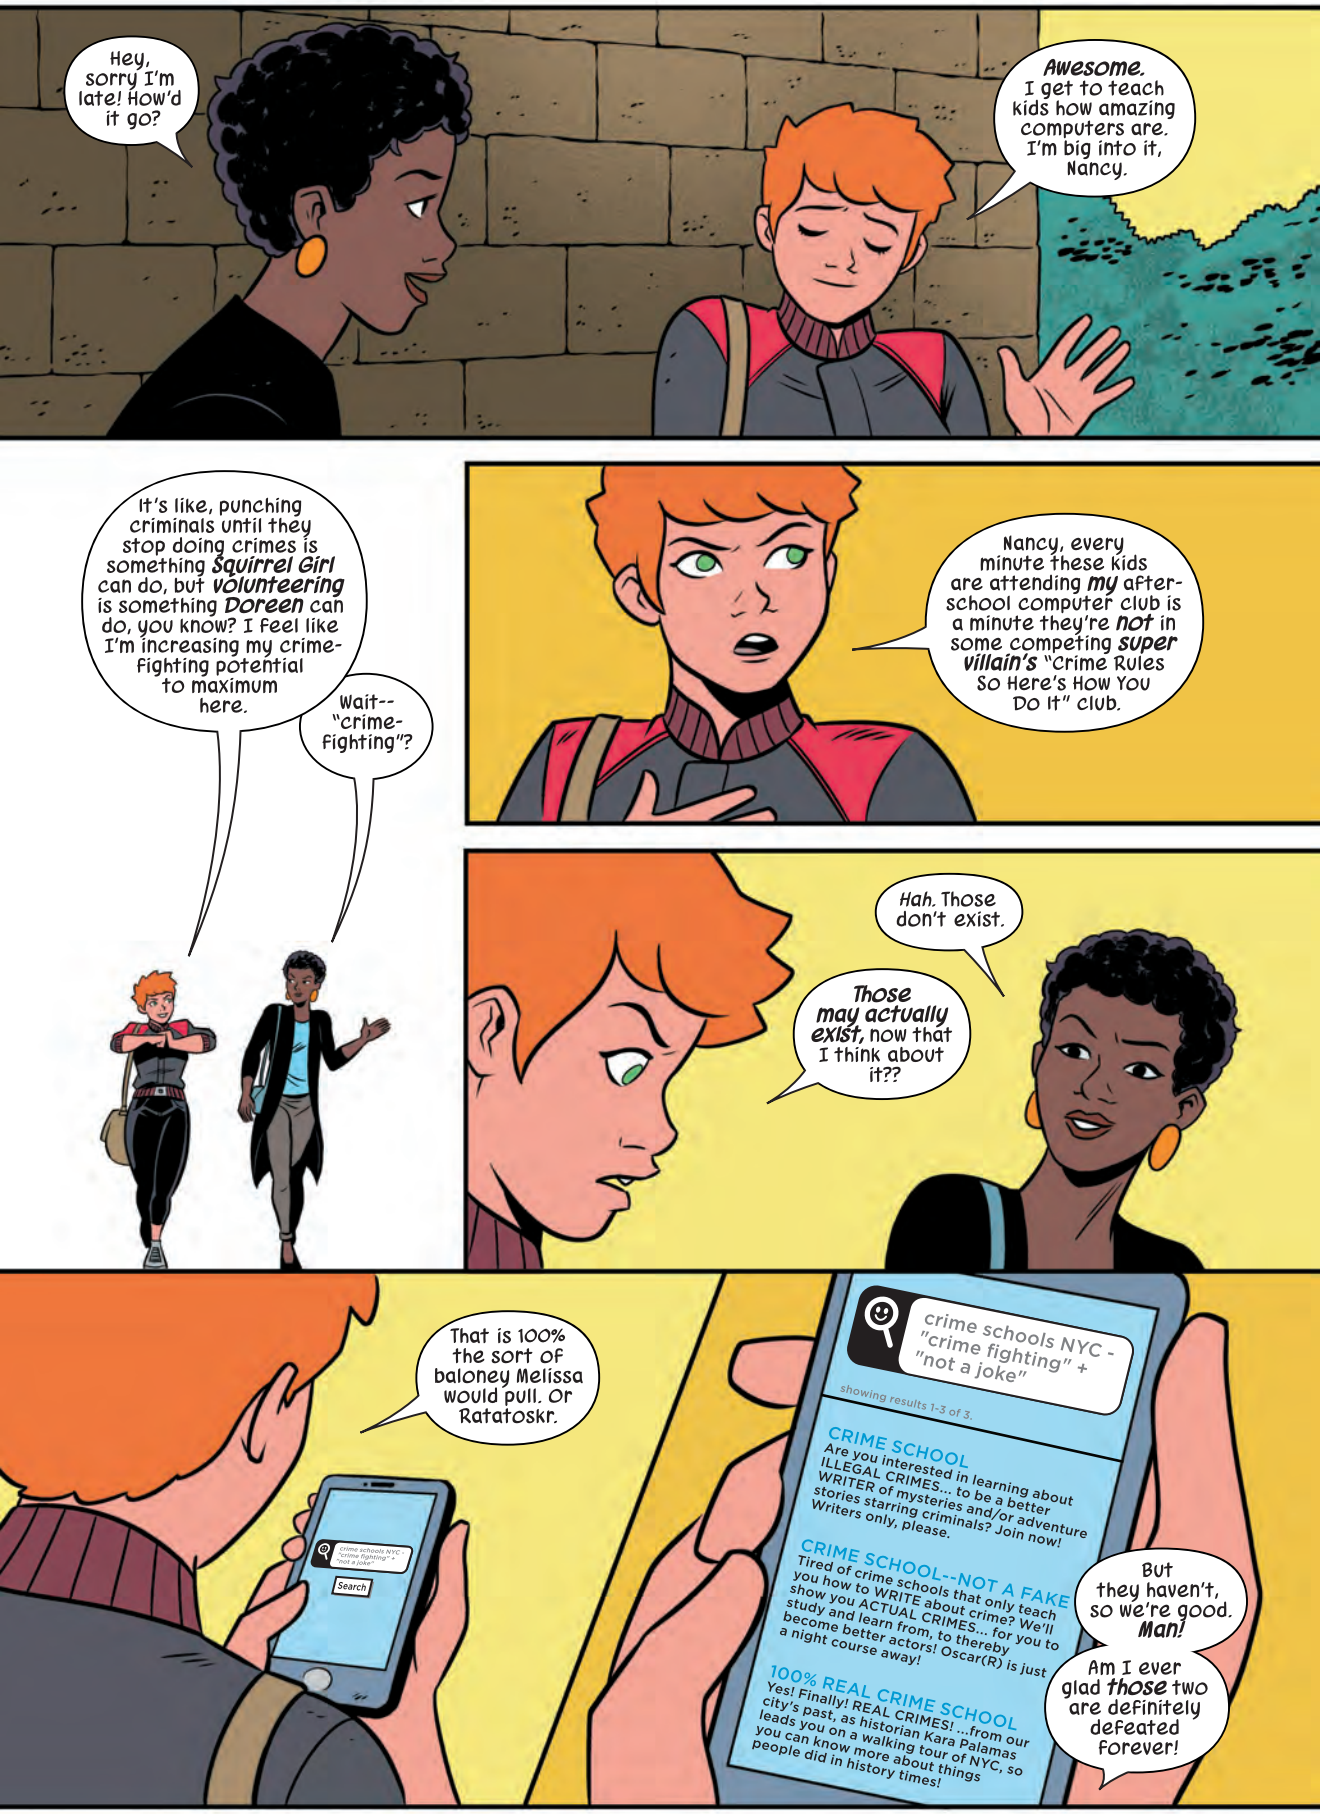
...future biographies of yourself and everyone you know...
...and even an index showing how to find everything not yet uncovered!



That last bit comes from W.V.O. Quine, who called it "the miracle of binary notation: everything worth saying, and everything else as well, can be said with two characters." He's not wrong! I learned this when I was a kid and I'm an adult now and it still blows my mind!

the unbeatable Squirrel Girl
Cool class today, Ms. Green!
I keep saying, call me "Doreen." And great work today, both of you! See you next week?
You know it!
Starring:
Squirrel Girl
Powers of both squirrel and girl! Secret identity: Doreen Green!
Nancy Whitehead
Powers of both computer science student and girl! Roommate/teammate of Squirrel Girl!
Kraven the Hunter
Powers of both hunter and Russian nobleman! Loves hunting and poetry, dislikes needlessly spidery men!
Brain Drain
Powers of being a brain in a jar and philosophy enthusiast! He does his best, which is all we can ask of anyone!
AND MORE
Powers of--a lot of things, actually! We'll catch up with them later! Be patient!
Also starring: ADVENTURE (an unusual, exciting or sometimes dangerous activity), ACTION (the process of doing something) and EXCITEMENT (something that elicits enthusiasm or eagerness)! So prepare yourself to experience these now well-defined three things!



Crime Rules So Here's How You Do It Club has several merit badges, including "First Successful Heist," "First Successful Heist Where The Weird Twitchy Criminal Everyone Thinks Will Be Useless Ends Up Being The Most Valuable Criminal Of All," and "First Heist That Would've Been Successful, If Not For Those Meddling Kids." That last one's pretty easy to get. Lots and lots of meddling kids out there!

Tell me you wouldn't read a book called "Stone-Cold Kickin' It With Sergei Kravinoff." If you did, bad news: you just told a big ol' lie.
