BETA RAY BILL

To help protect his people, the Korbinites, from Surtur the fire god, Beta Ray Bill was transformed into a powerful, horselike cyborg. When he first encountered Thor, Bill discovered he was able to lift Mjolnir, earning him the respect of All-Father Odin, who made Bill his own hammer: Stormbreaker. Odin's enchantment let Bill revert to his humanoid form whenever he struck the hammer on the ground.

Thor has since become the All-Father of Asgard, and recently, during a disagreement with Bill, Thor shattered Stormbreaker.

Frustrated at now being unable to change back to his humanoid form, Bill left Asgard in search of Odin, with Skurge the Executioner and Pip the Troll joining him on his quest. But the former All-Father no longer has the powers necessary to provide Bill with a new enchanted hammer, so Odin suggested Bill and his companions travel to the fiery realm of Muspelheim for a suitable replacement—Twilight, the sword of Surtur himself.

But their arrival in Muspelheim ended up transforming Bill's sentient ship, Skuttlebutt, in a surprising way...
