HNNN

We cannot stop--!

We're both... bleeding out, Zoe...

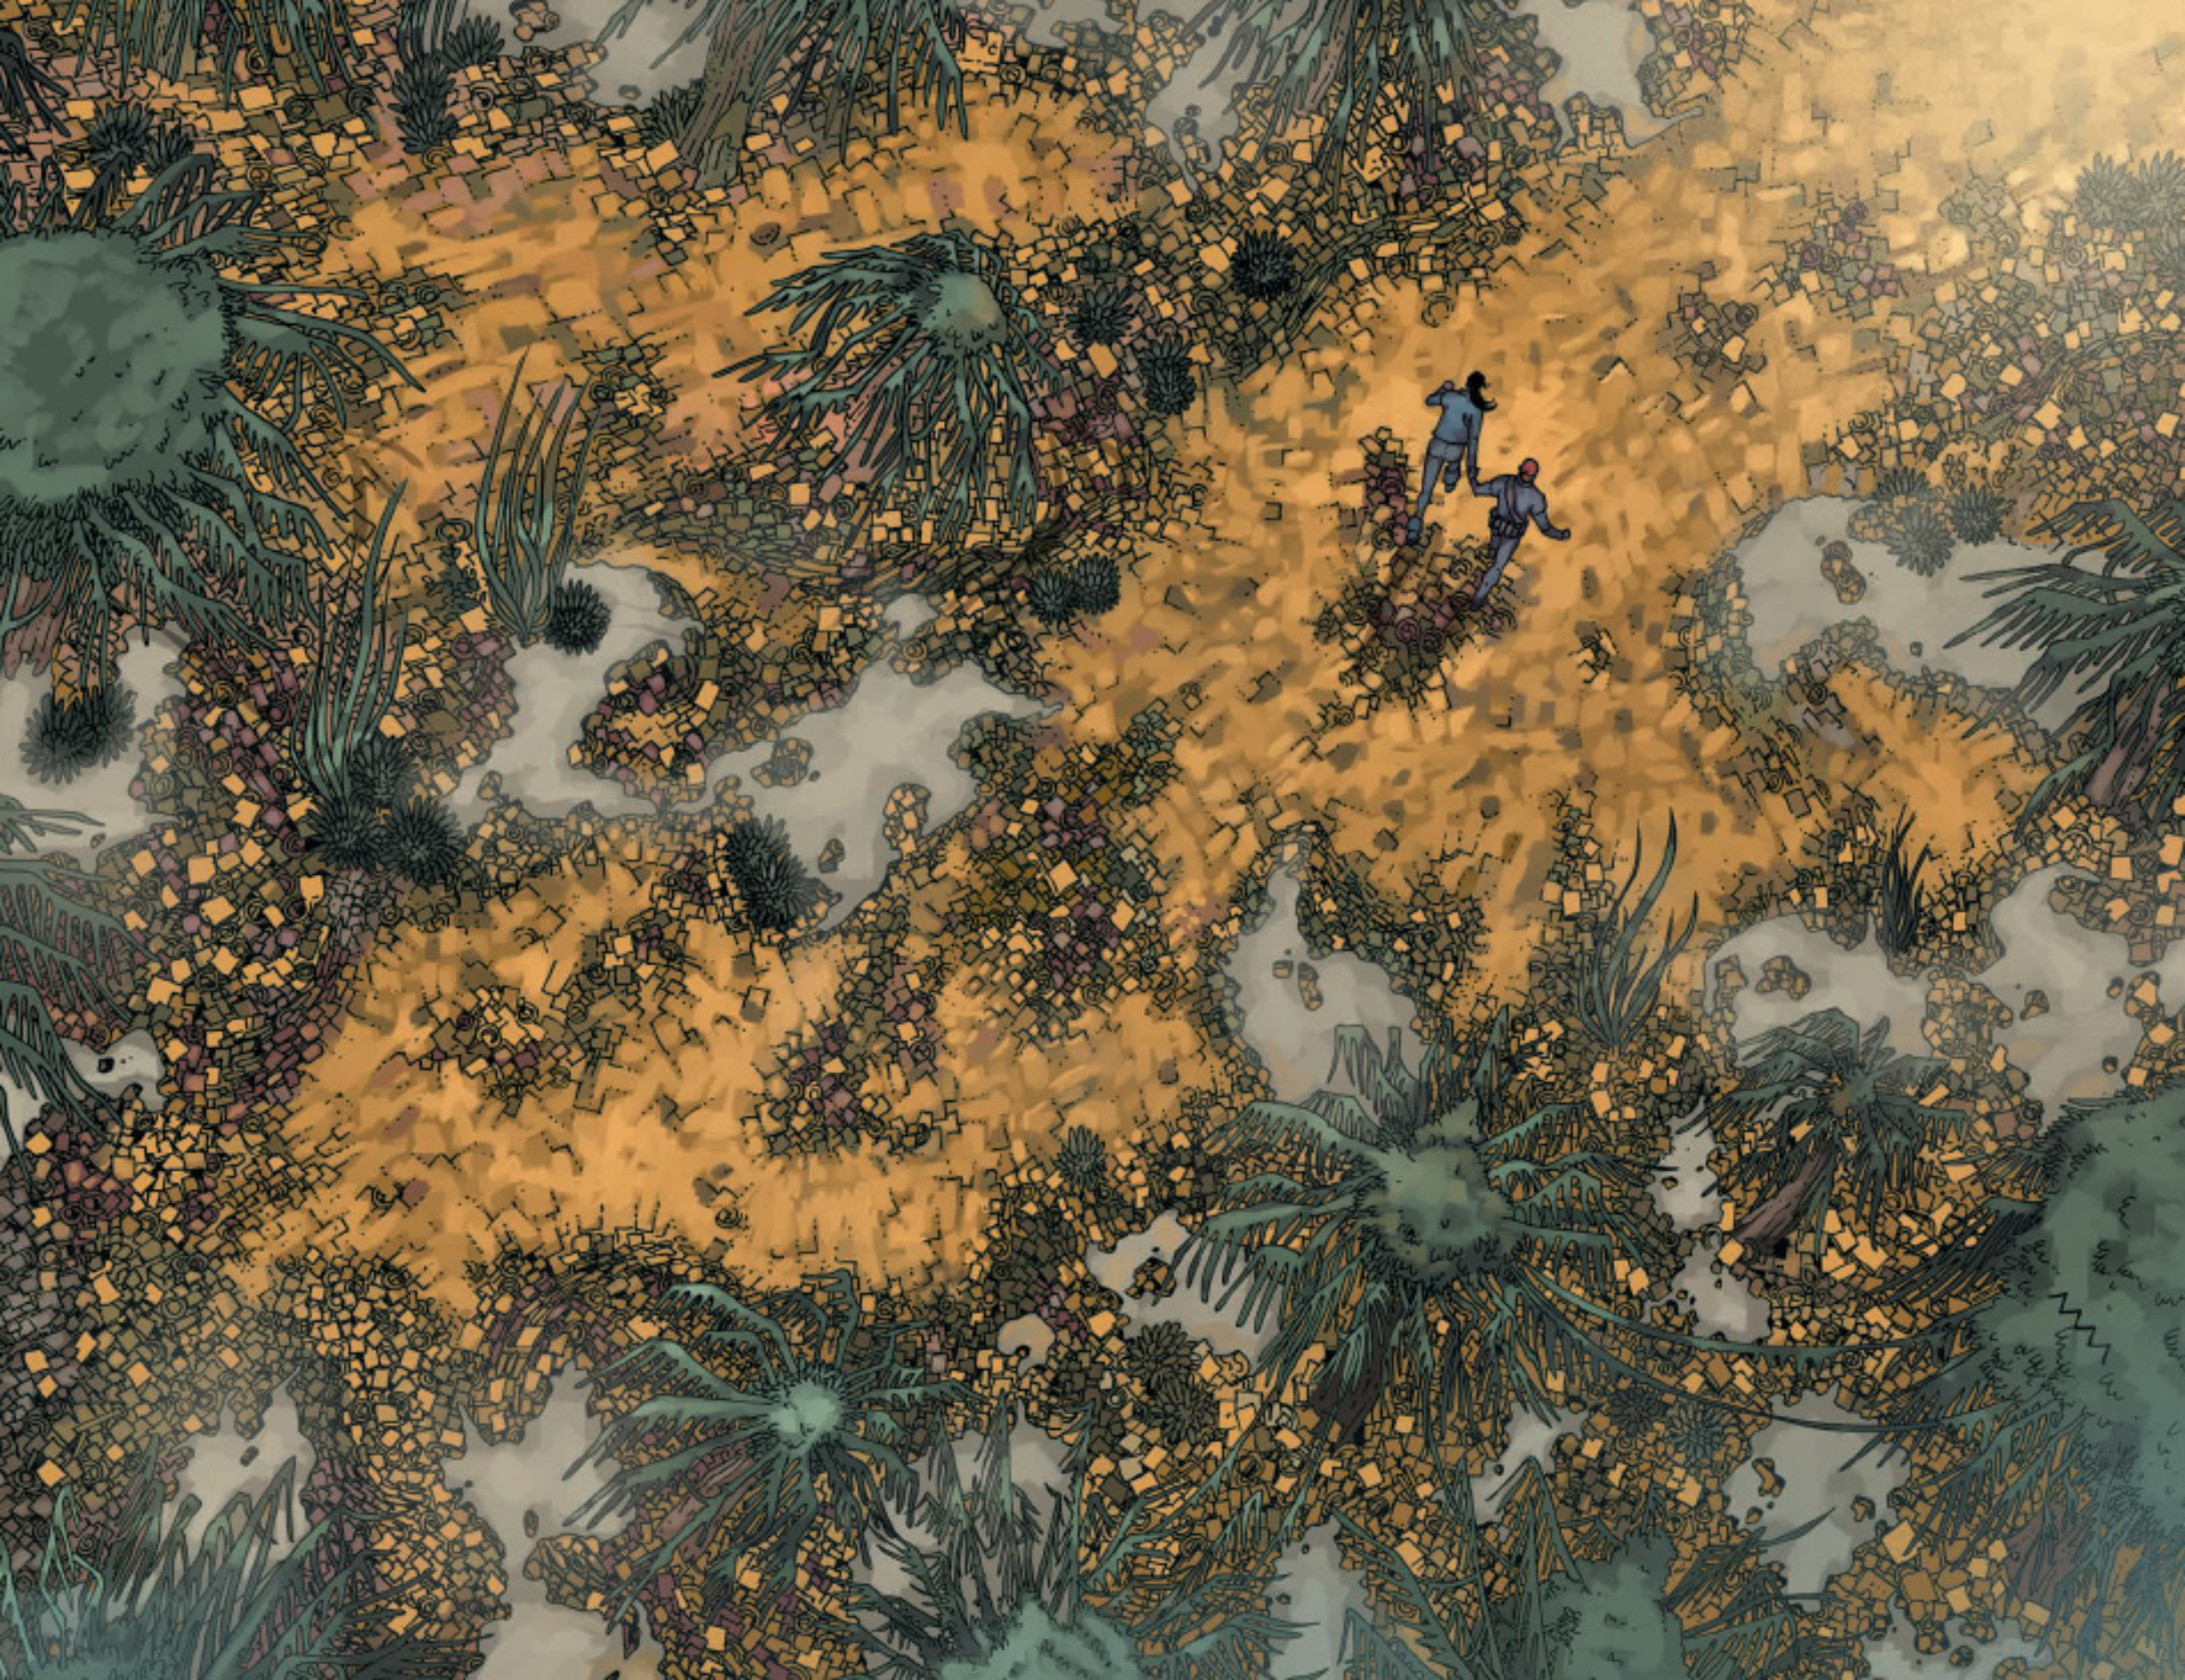

Can hardly stay... conscious...

You think death will save you from Baston--?

If you die it will only make him mad!

KEEP RUNNING!

My life,
I pledge.

We gotta get over
that ridge,
somehow.

You
first.

My soul,
I give.

But how will
you--?

I'm right behind
you!

And in exchange...

FFTHP

"...I will take everything else that is."

ARGH!

When First she did not return to me, ma petit belle, I was very sad. My beautiful bird, I missed her song so.

Then, I came to understand why she would stray...

Don't listen to him... go...

I realized, she only goes where she might take the most. That was her nature, ma belle chérie.

So I would seek her out.

And I would take back what was--

Hold it right there, Sparky!

I assure you... such gallantry shall not be wasted, my Lord and Grace.

Whereas I think such [redacted] should be wasted at every opportunity.

You don't even see it, do you, you arrogant [redacted]?

After everything you've already taken from me... After all that you've already destroyed...

You're so busy trying to run the table, you don't even realize...

What are you doing--?

...you've already lost.
