BLOODSHOT WAS THE PERFECT LIVING WEAPON,

an indestructible killing machine pumped full of nanites by the private paramilitary organization Project Rising Spirit and brainwashed into doing its bidding. Eventually, Bloodshot broke free of his programming and became a hero. He even fell in love with the Geomancer, Kay McHenry, but during a great battle she died in his arms. As Kay's last act, she stripped the nanites from Bloodshot's body, granting him one last chance at a normal life.

Unable to forget the horrors of his past, Bloodshot couldn't make good on his fresh start. Broken, powerless, and living under the name Ray Garrison, he holed up in a Colorado motel, drowning himself in drugs and alcohol. But Ray's solitude was cut short by reports of mass shootings across the state and gunmen who look just like Bloodshot.

Feeling responsible, Ray hunts down two of the infected imposters. When Ray realizes the killers can't control the nanites, he murders the hosts and reabsorbs the nanites, slowly losing his newfound humanity in the process. But even with his powers starting to return, Ray can't tell if the demonic visions of his dead girlfriend and a cartoon Bloodshot are real or not...
