

After Thanos took his family and his life, the man now known as Drax was remade into a being of great strength with a thirst for revenge. His pursuit of justice has taken him throughout the universe and displayed his incredible courage and heroism, which led Peter Quill to invite him into the Guardians of the Galaxy. Though he found a new home with the Guardians, true peace remains elusive for the warrior called...

DRAX

The task of returning the children Drax rescued from Fin Fang Foom to their home planets went from inconvenient to extremely hazardous when bounty hunters began accosting Drax and his crew. The friendliest were Drax's old daughter-figure Cammi, Planet Terry, and their boss Pip the Troll. The worst was Killer Thrill, who has psychic powers she charges up with violence and a murderous grudge against her ex-partner, Drax's crewmate, Ora. A huge bounty had been offered for one of Drax's passengers, but they returned the one princess on board and got bupkis in return.

While planning their next move, Drax's crusty dragon egg (also rescued from Fin Fang Foom) turned out to be less dormant than it looked.

I HAVE NO IDEA WHAT TO DO WITH THE OFFSPRING OF FIN FANG FOOM.

WE COULD RETURN THIS...CHILD TO ITS PARENT, LIKE WE HAVE BEEN DOING, BUT I AM NOT SURE LEAVING A BABY WITH SUCH A MURDEROUS BEAST IS A GOOD IDEA.

OH, DRAX. IRONY ISN'T JUST A RIVER IN EGYPT, EHP?

MAYBE WE CAN LEAVE THIS CREATURE WITH THE NEXT FAMILY?
I CAN'T TAKE CARE OF ANY MORE CHILDREN.
