

There are a lot of stories about that creepy-looking mansion on the hill, but Danny Crowe's living one far creepier than anything he's heard. His adventurer Grandpa promised him they'd explore the mansion one day, but a freak accident killed his gramps and squashed that plan until Madame Leota, a ghost in a crystal ball, reached out to Danny to tell him his Grandpa's ghost is in the mansion and needs his help!

Danny plucked up every bit of courage he had and set out for the mansion, which he learned is populated with retired ghosts who want to enjoy their (after)lives. But among them is a sinister spirit known only as the Captain, who used his magic to trap all of the ghosts there with him! Only a living person can break the spell and find a way out, so Danny agreed to help. However, the Captain revealed Leota was lying about Danny's Grandpa ever being in the mansion as he smashed her crystal ball! At the point of his sword, the Captain forced Danny to venture into the attic to search for the treasure, but instead Danny found himself on the run from Constance, the murderous ghostly bride, which led him to an even better discovery—an open window! It's a long drop, but Danny chose to leap from it in a last ditch effort to escape!
