

At this point, President Chambers has yet to pass a single bill...

Let's call it "alternative legislation." Legislation by decimation...

As this White House seems intent on destroying funding to health care with no intent of renewal...

Tens of thousands of protestors around this country have been arrested...

As North Korea has announced a bilateral nuclear arms deal with ISIS...

The definition of "illegals" has been expanded to those whose parents refuse to pledge allegiance to this President...

Meanwhile, questions continue to rise about ties to the European criminal underworld...

As a suspected mob boss is appointed to head the Department of Justice.

And money laundering charges are dropped in exchange for loyalty pledges.

Sir, the Council is now asking for the head of the Flat Earth Society to lead the climate talks and a Haitian voodoo occultist to be nominated to the position of Surgeon General.

That's fine.

And we haven't yet introduced their Wealth Care plan. Health insurance walled off into economic classes? If you wanted to see a doctor, you'd be forced to outbid other patients through online auction sites.

Profits would be enormous.

And purchasing Russian software to run our nuclear codes...?

Sir, if I may. This country is being deliberately destabilized to allow the Council to plunder its resources. When the money is gone...

Not my president...

*He's a joke and a puppet!
Why haven't we seen
his birth certificate?*

If I may...
You're being set up for a fall, sir.

...

What do we do?

Economic chaos as the markets sharply dive...

Forest fires rage out of control in California but fire departments are restricted from battling any flare-ups outside of Malibu...

As China negotiates to fill its factory positions with American prisoners to fulfill the American Made requirements...

Water systems in three states have now recorded record levels of mercury...

The Boy Scouts of America will now begin immigrant monitoring programs...

As the new Attorney General has taken a recusal from all prior recusals...

It is a great honor to lead the Free World.
And to lead, first we must serve.

And American anti-Russian activists are extradited to face criminal charges in the Kremlin...

JONES MANOR

By the power of influenza!

You were right, Church! I risked it all... And lost.

Been so long since I've tasted freedom. I seem to have forgotten...

It mostly tastes like single malt.

We had a good run, didn't we?

Renato, perhaps you should sit and have a cup of tea?

Tonight I finally took your advice. Or at least, your scotch!

So much better than the [redacted]... Am I right?

Everything is backwards tonight. I let the charcoal taste of it wash over me.

Renato, stop! What's wrong with you, man?

Wrong? I let Cameron Alves live. And for that, all of this...

I'm drowning.

Must die.

And it's wonderful.

Renato. You need sleep.

A real tragedy...I'll have to switch to vodka.

I can't stand vodka.

Sleep.

Don't worry about the mess, Renato...

Where would I be without you, Church? Maybe they'll let us share a cell...

Listen to Church. Sleep. Vodka. No particular order.

It's my job to clean up after you.
