Two things. One. That Fox's "pranks" were anything but. That supernatural creature's understanding of human MORTALITY is lax at best.

"...Fox would put mud in a scout's cap, yes..."

"...but then would also trick scouts into dangerous bogs just to steal their lunches..."

"...OR would partially saw through the boards on bridges to laugh at them while they scrambled across..."

What's the second thing?

...Ah, right.

...I don't have the heart. Never did.
