

The girl lead us through the forest. I have to say, she would make an excellent guide or scout. Clark, however, had his concerns.

I'M TELLING YOU, SHE'S OFF.

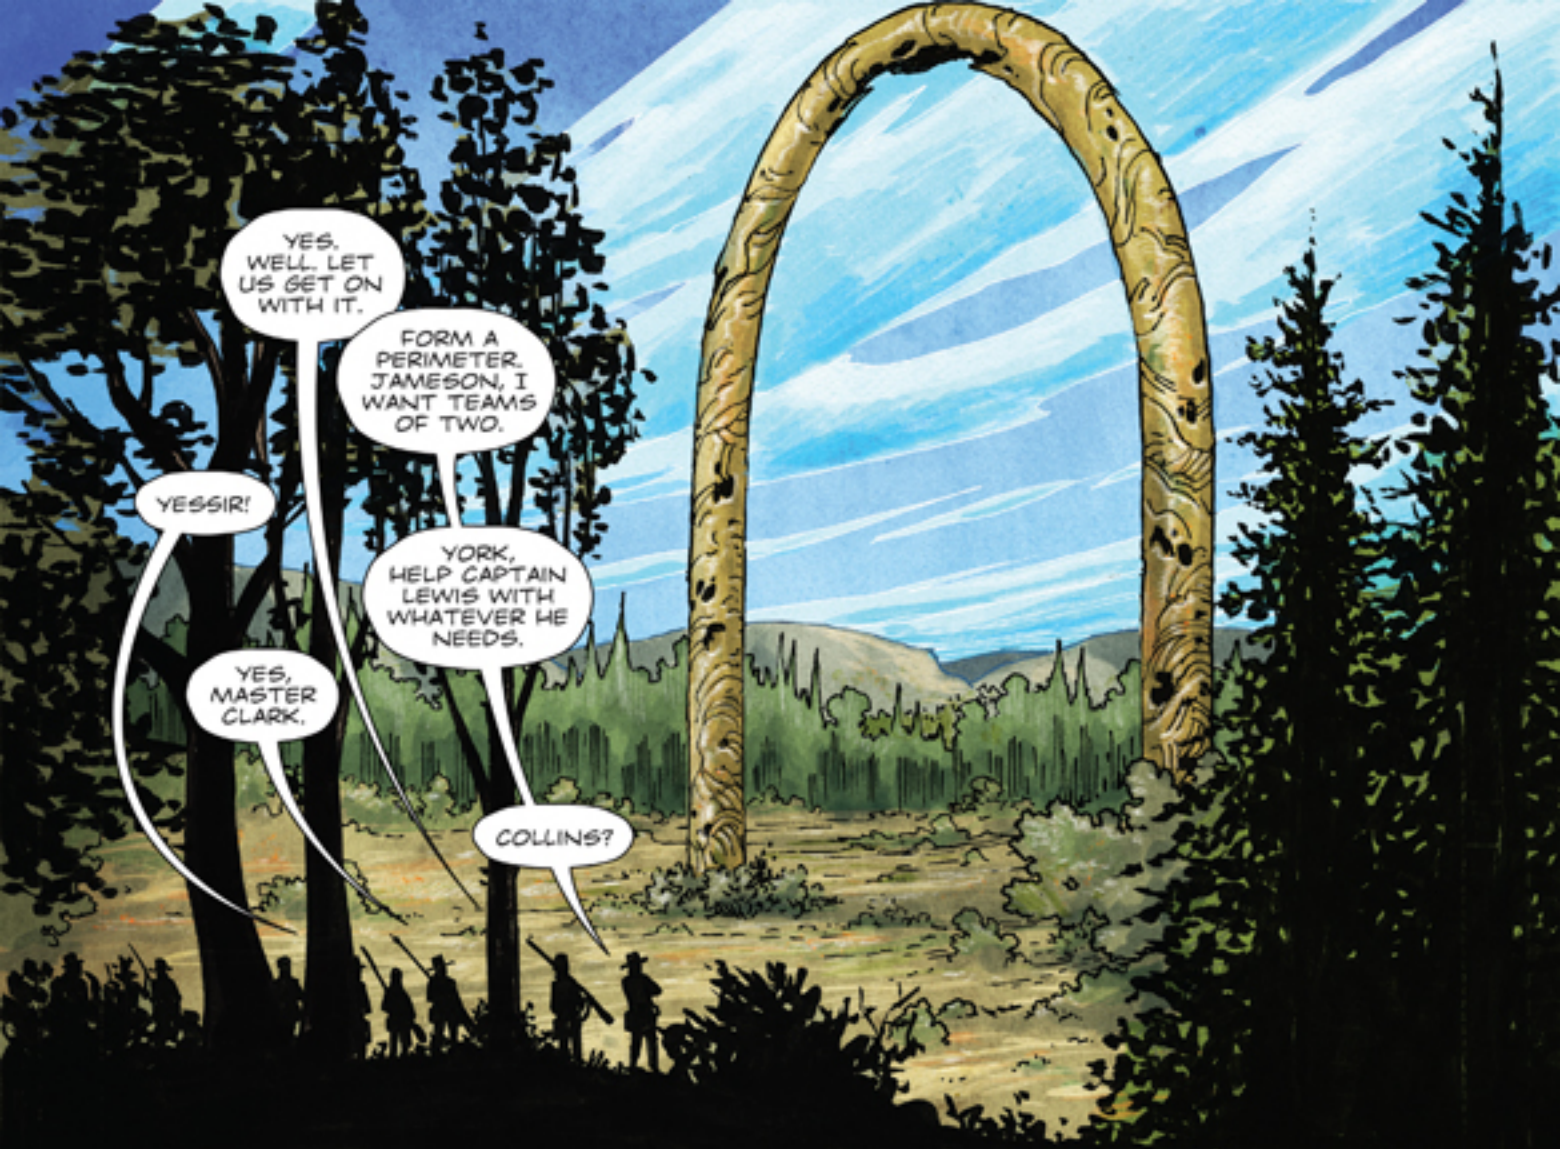

TELL THAT TO THOSE POOR RABBITS.

YOU DON'T SEE IT? SOMETHING IS WRONG WITH HER.

WE ARE HERE. I WILL GO BACK NOW. AND THERE IS NOTHING WRONG WITH ME.

If I ever have the chance, I'd like to examine that girl's hearing. Quite remarkable.

AH! OF COURSE THERE ISN'T! AND THANK YOU SO MUCH FOR YOUR HELP, SACAGAWEA!

YES, WELL, LET US GET ON WITH IT.

FORM A PERIMETER, JAMESON, I WANT TEAMS OF TWO.

YESSIR!

YORK, HELP CAPTAIN LEWIS WITH WHATEVER HE NEEDS.

YES, MASTER CLARK.

COLLINS?

YES, SIR?

YOU'RE WITH ME.

REALLY, SIR?

YES.

JUST KEEP YOUR RIFLE AT THE READY, AND GRAB SOME ROPE.

I am beginning to see a pattern and have developed a theory. It seems obvious now, but I feel I must state it. Each one of the arches is different and corresponds to a different creature.

I GOT A THEORY, TUTTLE.

YOU'LL KEEP IT TO YOURSELF, JENSEN.

EVERY TIME WE SEE ONE OF THESE ARCHES, WE'RE SUPPOSED TO STAND AROUND IT AND WAIT TO GET KILLED?

The first arch was covered in vegetation and we encountered the flora creatures. The water arch was covered in eggs of the Ranidea. Granted I saw no structure correlating to those Minotauresque Buffalo devils.

I UNDERSTAND CAPTAIN LEWIS IS ON A MISSION TO STUDY, WHICH MEANS WE'RE ALL ON A MISSION TO STUDY...BUT WHAT GOOD IS IT TO LEARN IF YOU ARE TOO DEAD TO DO ANYTHING WITH ALL THE LEARNING YOU GOT?

YOU DON'T HAVE TO TELL ME, BROTHER. THIS IS A DEADLY, UNHOLY GAME MY CAPTAIN IS PLAYING.

AMEN.
