

PRESENT DAY.

I just heard the call over the scanner.

Should just be another--

There we go.

You can always depend on Batman.

At least that's what I'm counting on.

Visor optics tell me what I've already guessed.

The security sensors have been upgraded at least twice since I was last here.

SENSORS ENGAGED.

So, gee, this might take me all of ten seconds instead of five.

SENSORS DISENGAGED

Okay, eleven seconds. Still not bad.

I'm only going to have a few minutes before my hack gets overridden by Lucius's fail-safes.

Should be enough time to do what I need to do...

...then I can say goodbye to this hellhole forever.
