

I ALWAYS SAID IT WAS FRUIT LOOPS TO LET MOON GIRL STAY IN OUR CLASS! SOMETHING LIKE THIS HAD TO HAPPEN!

QUIET, EDUARDO! CAN'T YOU SEE SHE'S TRYING TO CONCENTRATE?

GYAAH!

This is not my fault.

First of all, how do we know these robots are after me? A lot of crazy things happen in this city to totally random people.

TARGET ACQUIRED.

Yeah, but maybe it would call anyone a target!

Second, I never asked to be in P.S. 20.

HERE'S A TASTE OF SOMETHING THEY DON'T TEACH IN SCIENCE CLASS.

SNAKK

I don't belong here.

That's for sure.

MAYDAY!

Ever since kindergarten, I've tested into the gifted and talented program-- but no seats! Never enough room for me.

IS ANYONE READING ME?

I beat the Banner B.O.X.-- solved the unsolvable brain-teaser. Amadeus Cho... eighth smartest person in the world... but also the Hulk...is looking into my school situation.

I'd home-school, but both my parents work.

The thing I've learned at school-- is to not hold my breath!

...M...MAYDAY...

Got to take care of myself.

Why is there no response to my distress call?

Devil Dinosaur! He wanted to go out for a swim! The East River is gross enough...but now he's not here the one time I need him.
