

Nifaal. The Aris Mountains.

This place seems so familiar to us.

Do you know why?

The hazy vision we saw in Amdor...

That was you...

I didn't know daraka could send visions. Intentionally, too. But why was it hazy?

...They probably can't send visions as far as we can.

I wonder if they saw the ones we sent to each other...

Whoa...

So we can all see each other's visions. But what about the Warmth?

I haven't felt it at all from them.
