SPECIAL THANKS TO ROCKSTEADY STUDIOS

Always made me sick how much Bruce plays at hating the limelight.

As if his whole Batman persona was anything more than a cry for someone to pay attention.

Did he ever really think dressing up as a bat was the sure way not to be noticed?

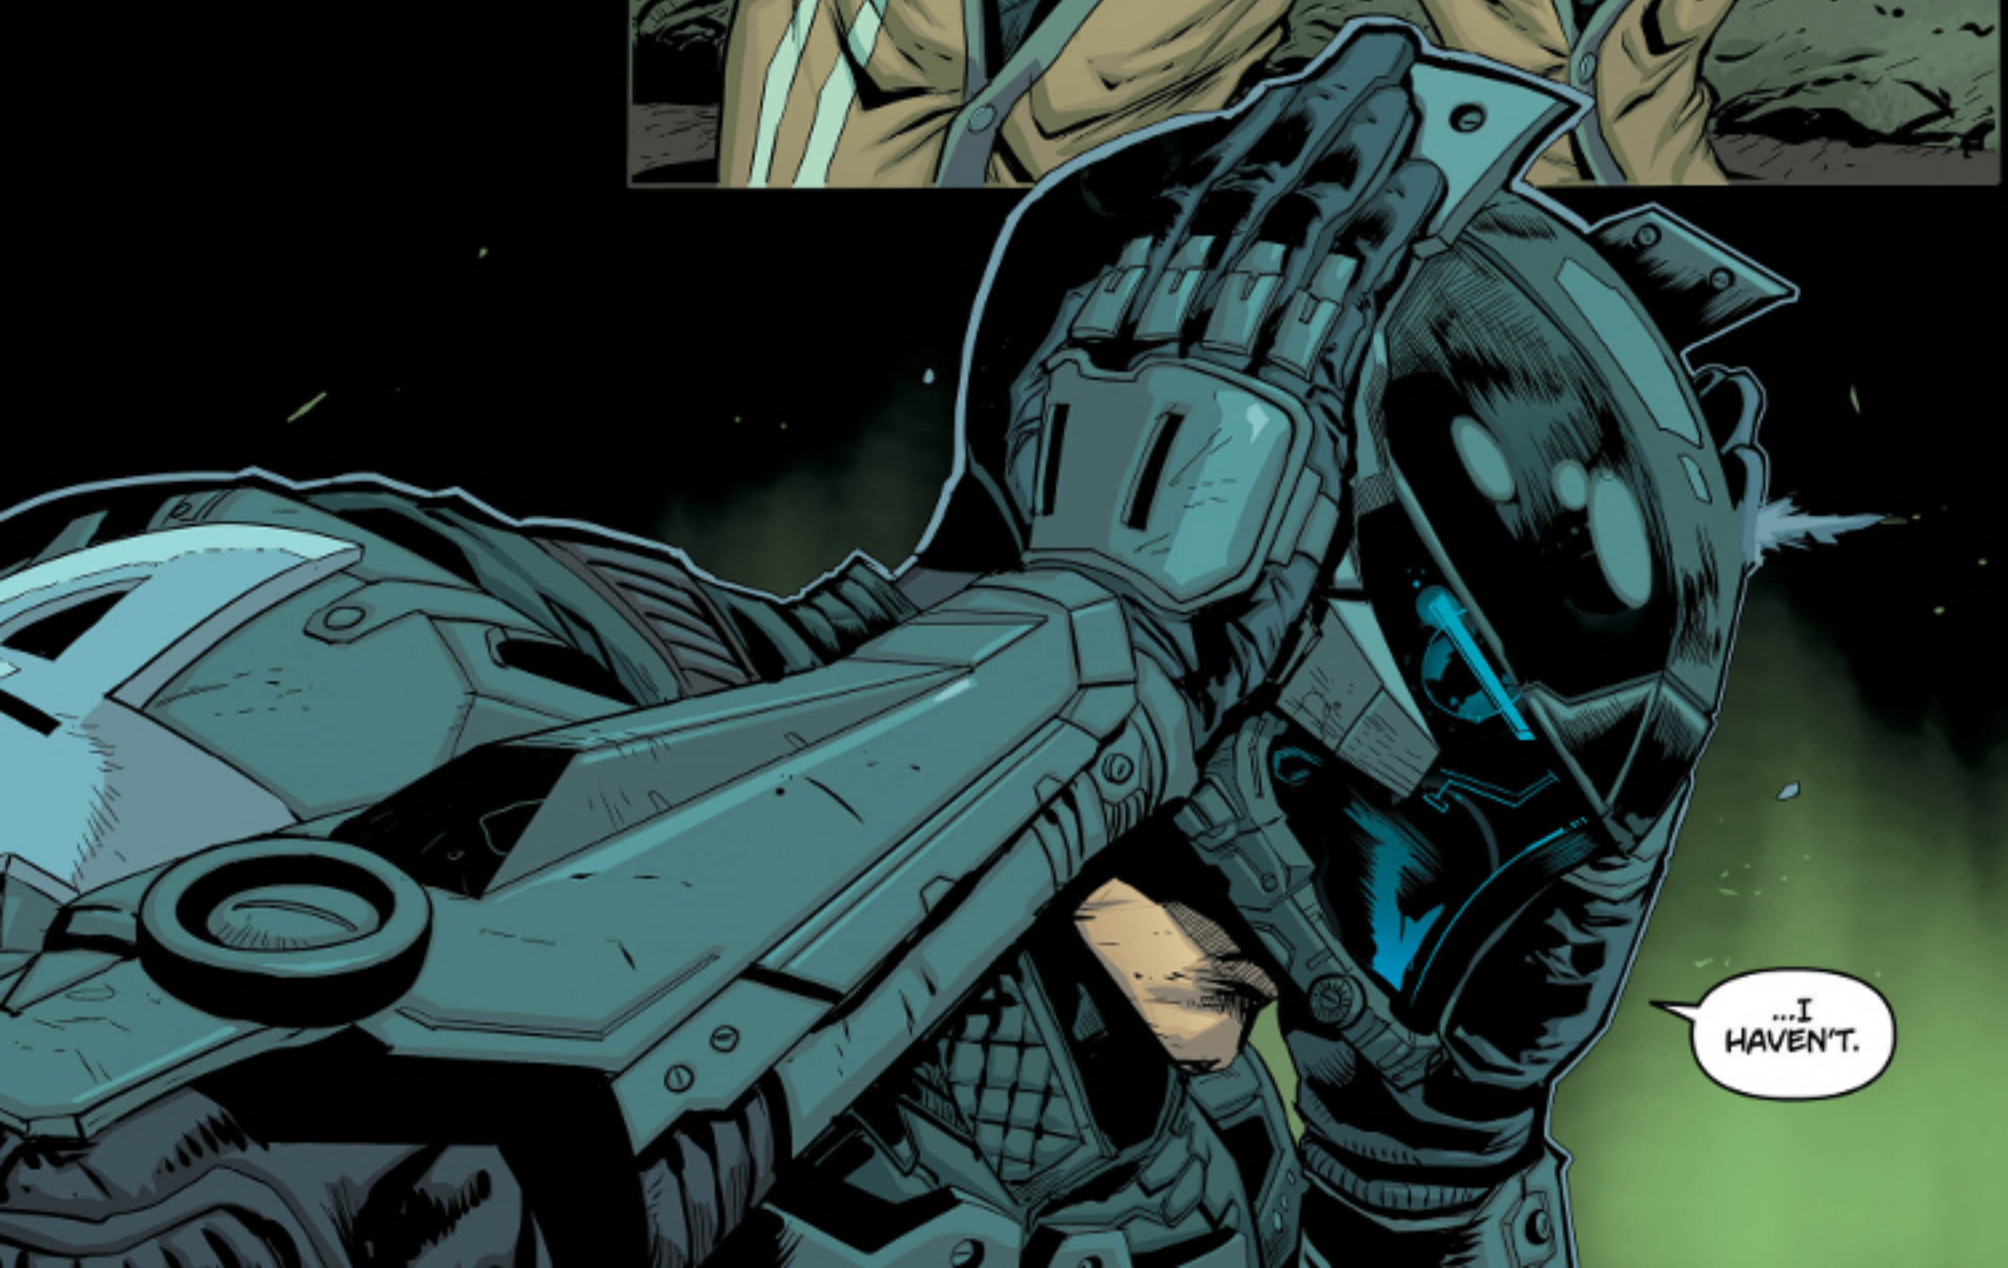

Celebrities like Bruce always like to pretend there's no way to avoid all the attention.

They shed crocodile tears about their family suffering from the spotlight.

But anyone can be completely alone...

...if they really want to be.

I'M GONNA LIVE FOREVER!

DOUBTFUL.
