

We have a lot of targets for the next three years of my Mayoral term.

First, we're announcing today that we intend to open talks with I-SEEC over our energy costs.

Is it fair that we pay the same as Earth for our energy, when it's generated right here on the Fuse? Is it fair that I-SEEC has us at gunpoint over rates?

Hell, no!

